Dated 26th October 2018

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

THIS DOCUMENT IS IMPORTANT. BEFORE YOU PURCHASE ANY OF THE SHARES YOU SHOULD ENSURE THAT YOU FULLY UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF SUCH AN INVESTMENT, THE RISKS INVOLVED AND YOUR OWN PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. IF YOU ARE IN ANY DOUBT ABOUT THE CONTENTS OF THIS PROSPECTUS YOU SHOULD TAKE ADVICE FROM AN APPROPRIATELY QUALIFIED ADVISOR.

Authorisation

The Company is an investment company with variable share capital (SICAV) incorporated in terms of the Companies Act (Chapter 386 of the Laws of Malta) on the 20th April 2012. The Company is licensed by the Malta Financial Services Authority (MFSA) in terms of Article 6 of the Investment Services Act (Chapter 370 of the Laws of Malta) as a collective investment scheme and qualifies as a 'Maltese UCITS' in terms of the Investment Services Act (Marketing of UCITS) Regulations (Legal Notice 241 of 2011, as may be amended from time to time). This authorisation by the MFSA however, does not constitute a warranty by the MFSA as to the performance of the Company or its Funds and the MFSA shall not be liable for the performance or default of the Company or its Funds. Authorisation of the Company or its Funds is not an endorsement or guarantee of the Company or its Funds by the MFSA nor is the MFSA responsible for the contents of this Prospectus.

The Company is structured as a multi-fund (umbrella) company, which may issue separate classes of groups of classes of shares constituting distinct Funds (the Funds), with the assets and liabilities of each Fund constituting separate patrimonies pursuant to the Companies Act (Investment Companies with Variable Share Capital) Regulations (Legal Notice 241 of 2006, as amended) (the SICAV Regulations). The Funds currently established under the umbrella company is the "FCS World Equities Fund". All Shares of each Class comprised in a Fund will rank pari passu save as provided for in the relevant Supplement. On the introduction of any new Fund or any new Class of Shares of an existing Fund (for which prior MFSA approval is required), the Company will prepare and the Directors will issue a new Supplement or update the existing Supplement setting out the relevant details of each such Fund or new Class of Shares. A separate portfolio of assets will be maintained for each Fund (and accordingly not for each Class of Shares) and will be invested in accordance with the investment objective and policy applicable to such Fund. Particulars relating to individual Funds and the Classes of Shares available therein are set out in the relevant Supplement.

Pursuant to the SICAV Regulations, the assets and liabilities of each individual Fund comprised in the Company constitute, for all intents and purposes of law, a patrimony separate from the assets and liabilities of each other Fund so that the assets of one Fund will be available exclusively for the creditors and holders of Shares in that Fund only, save for the portion of the liabilities of the Company which by virtue of the Articles or by virtue of the terms of issue of Shares in any Fund or by virtue of or as described in this Prospectus, are attributable to and to be paid out of the assets of one or more Fund/s in the proportion established therein. Accordingly, the liabilities incurred in respect of such Fund (including such proportion of the liabilities of the Company which by virtue of this Prospectus, the Articles or the terms of issue of the Shares constituting that Fund are attributable to such Fund) will be paid solely out of the assets forming part of its patrimony and the creditors in respect thereof shall have no claim or right of action against the other assets of other Funds or of the Company, even in case of insufficiency of assets of such Fund to meet its liabilities (in which case the proportion of liabilities of such Fund in excess of the assets will not be allocated to other Funds).

The Company is licensed (in respect of the Fund/s as on the date hereof) as a collective investment scheme by the MFSA in terms of Article 6 of the Investment Services Act (Chapter 370 of the Laws of Malta) and qualifies as a 'Maltese UCITS' pursuant to the Regulations.

Funds

The Company is structured as a multi-fund (umbrella) company, which may issue separate Classes of groups of Classes of Shares constituting distinct Funds, with the assets and liabilities of each Fund constituting separate patrimonies pursuant to the SICAV Regulations. On the introduction of any new Fund (for the Company requires a licence granted by the MFSA) or any new Class of Shares in an existing Fund (for which prior MFSA approval is required and which must be issued in accordance with the requirements of the Licence Conditions), the Company will prepare and the Directors will issue a Supplement or update the existing Supplement setting out the relevant details of each such Fund or new Class of Shares. A separate portfolio of assets will be maintained for each Fund (and accordingly not for each Class of Shares) and will be invested in accordance with the investment objective and policies applicable to such Fund. Particulars relating to individual Funds and the Classes of Shares available therein are set out in the relevant Supplement.

Investment Objective and Policies

There is no guarantee that any of the investment objectives will be met.

FUNDS

The Company comprises or will comprise one or more segregated Funds, each represented and constituted by a different class or group of classes of Shares, and constituting separate patrimonies in terms of the SICAV Regulations.

Funds

The Company is a multi-fund (umbrella) company in terms of the SICAV Regulations. Pursuant to the SICAV Regulations, the assets and liabilities of each individual Fund comprised in the Company shall for all intents and purposes of law constitute a patrimony separate from the assets and liabilities of each other Fund of the Company so that the assets of one Fund shall be available exclusively for the creditors and holders of Shares in that Fund only, save for the portion of the liabilities of the Company which by virtue of the Articles or by virtue of the terms of issue of Shares in any Fund or by virtue of or as described in this Prospectus are, or are to be, attributable to and to be paid out of the assets of one or more Fund/s in the proportion established therein. Accordingly, the liabilities incurred in respect of such Fund (including such proportion of the liabilities of the Company which by virtue hereof or of the Articles or by virtue of the terms of issue of the Shares constituting that Fund are, or are to be, attributable to such Fund) shall be paid solely out of the assets forming part of its patrimony and the creditors in respect thereof shall have no claim or right of action against the other assets of other Funds or of the Company, even in case of insufficiency of assets of such Fund to meet its liabilities (in which case the proportion of liabilities of such Fund in excess of the assets will not be allocated to other Funds).

In terms of Maltese law, the legal status of each Fund's assets and liabilities as a separate patrimony segregated from the assets and liabilities of each other Fund shall be respected in any proceedings which may be instituted in terms of the Companies Act when such proceedings relate to the dissolution and consequential winding-up or the reconstruction of the Company. Furthermore the proceedings which may be instituted under the Companies Act relating to dissolution and consequential winding-up of companies and company reconstructions shall apply in the same way to each Fund as though it were a distinct legal entity and with such modifications as are necessary in view of the fact that a Fund is not a company. Any such proceedings in relation to any one Fund will not have any effect on the assets of any other Fund.

Each Fund will be differentiated by its specific investment objective, policy, currency of denomination or other specific features as described in the relevant Supplement. As explained above, a separate pool of assets is maintained for each Fund, which will be invested in accordance with each Fund's respective investment objective.

Classes of Shares

The Directors may decide to create within each Fund different Classes of Shares. In the case of two or more Classes of Shares issued in the same Fund, all assets and liabilities of or attributable to each such Class of Shares would form part of the total assets and liabilities of the Fund of which such a Class forms part (without prejudice to the provisions of the Supplement of such Fund, of this Prospectus and/or of the Articles and/or to the terms of issue of the relevant Class/es of Shares requiring or relating to the calculation of a separate NAV for each Class in such Fund).

The assets attributable to the Classes of Shares relating to the same Fund will be commonly invested in accordance with such Fund's investment objective but Classes may differ with regard to their fee structure, Minimum Initial Investment Amount, Minimal Additional Investment Amount, Minimum Shareholding, Minimum Repurchase Amount, dividend policy (including the dates and payments of any dividends), investor eligibility criteria or other particular feature(s) as the Directors may decide. A separate Net Asset Value per Share will be calculated for each issued Class of Shares in relation to each Fund. The different features of each Class of Shares available relating to a Fund are described in detail in the relevant Supplement.

The Company reserves the right to offer only one or several Classes of Shares for purchase by investors in any particular jurisdiction in order to conform to local law, custom or business practice. The Company also reserves the right to adopt standards applicable to certain classes of investors or transactions in respect of the purchase of a particular Class of Shares.

Investment Objective and Policies

The Company and the Investment Manager are required to observe the investment objectives, policies and restrictions of the Funds, in as set out in this Prospectus and subject to the Licence Conditions. Details of the investment objective and policy for each Fund of the Company appear in the Supplement for the relevant Fund.

Any change in the investment objective of a Fund may only be made with the prior approval of the Shareholders of such Fund, by means of an ordinary resolution of such Shareholders, adopted in accordance with the Articles, . Subject and without prejudice to the preceding sentence of this paragraph, in the event of a change of investment objective of a Fund, the change will only become effective after all pending repurchase requests linked to such change and received during the notice period specified in the notification of the approved change to the Shareholders, have been satisfied, and any applicable Repurchase Charge will be waived with respect of such repurchases.

Changes to the investment policy and restrictions of a Fund may be made by the Directors from time to time. Any material changes will be notified to the Fund's Shareholders in advance of the change, whereby a reasonable notice period will be observed to enable the Fund's Shareholders to have the Shares in the Fund repurchased prior to the implementation of such change.

Investment Restrictions

The investment restrictions applying to each Fund of the Company under the MFSA Rules and License Conditions are set out below. These are, however, subject to the qualifications and certain exemptions contained in the MFSA Rules and in the License Conditions. Any additional investment restrictions for particular Funds will be formulated by the Directors at the time of the creation of such Funds. The below shall apply to each Fund of the Company unless otherwise stated in the Offering Supplement of the Fund.

The Directors may from time to time impose such further investment restrictions as shall be compatible with or in the interest of the Shareholders, in order to comply with the laws and regulations of the countries where Shareholders are placed.

- B2. A Fund may invest no more than 5% of its assets in Transferable Securities or Money Market Instruments issued by the same body.
- B3. The limit referred in paragraph B2 above may be increased to 10% provided that the total value of Transferable Securities and Money Market Instruments in which the Fund invests more than 5% is less than 40%.
- B4. The limit of 5% (in B2) may be raised to 25% in the case of bonds that are issued by a credit institution which has its registered office in a Member State and is subject by law to special public supervision designed to protect bond-holders. Sums deriving from the issue of these bonds shall be invested, in conformity with the law, in assets which during the whole period of validity of the bonds, are capable of covering claims attaching to the bonds and which, in the event of failure of the issuer, would be used on a priority basis for the reimbursement of the principal and payment of the accrued interest. If a Fund invests more than 5% of its assets in these bonds issued by one issuer, the total value of those investments in each of which it holds more than 5% of its assets may not exceed 80% of the assets of the Fund.

B8. The Company may, in respect of a Fund, enter into FDIs falling under A7 above for investment or for efficient portfolio management.

The exposure per counterparty of an OTC FDI shall be measured on the basis of the maximum potential loss incurred by the Fund if the counterparty defaults.

The exposure to one counterparty in an OTC FDI may be reduced where the counterparty provides the Company with Approved Collateral. Furthermore, the Company may, in respect of a Fund, net the mark-to-market value of its OTC FDI positions with the same counterparty, thus reducing the Company's exposure to its counterparty, provided that the Company has in respect of that Fund a contractual netting agreement with its counterparty which creates a single legal obligation such that, in the event of the counterparty's failure to perform owing to default, bankruptcy, liquidation or any other similar circumstance, the Company would have a claim to receive or an obligation to pay only the net sum of the positive and negative mark-to-market values of included individual FDIs.

B9.4 other exposures arising from OTC FDIs relating to;

a single body in excess of 20% of its assets.

B10. The limits referred to in B2, B3, B4, B5, B7, B8 and B9 above may not be combined, so that exposure to a single body shall not exceed 35% of the assets of a Fund.

B11. Group companies are regarded as a single issuer for the purposes of B2, B3, B4, B5, B7, B8 B9 and B10. However, a limit of 20% of the assets of a Fund may be applied to investment in Transferable Securities and Money Market Instruments within the same group.

B12. Notwithstanding the limits stated above, a Fund may, applying the principle of risk spreading, invest up to 100% of its assets in different Transferable Securities and Money Market Instruments issued or guaranteed by:

- any Member State or its local authorities;
- non-Member States; or

B13. A Fund may not invest more than 20% of its assets in any one CIS referred to in paragraphs A4 and A5 above.

When a Fund has acquired CISs referred to in this paragraph B13, the assets of these CISs do not have to be combined for the purposes of the limits laid down in paragraphs B2 to B11.

B14. Investment in CISs referred to in paragraph A4 shall not, in aggregate, exceed 30% of the assets of a Fund. When a UCITS has acquired units of UCITS and / or other CIS, the assets of the respective UCITS or other CIS do not have to be combined for the purposes of the limits laid down in B2 – B6, B7, B8, and B9 – B11, subject to the approval of the MFSA.

B15. When a Fund invests in the units of other UCITs that are managed, by any company with which the Investment Manager are linked by a substantial direct or indirect holding, such entities may not charge subscription, conversion or redemption fees on account of the Fund's investment in the units of such other UCITs.

B16. Where a commission (including a rebated commission) is received by the Investment Manager by virtue of an investment in the units of another UCITs, this commission must be paid into the property of the Fund.

When the investment objective of a Fund is to replicate an index this will be stated in the Investment Policy of such Fund.

The Index is subject to MFSA approval and will be recognised by the MFSA on the basis of the criteria set out below:

- its composition is sufficiently diversified;
- the index represents an adequate benchmark for the market to which it refers; and
- it is published in an appropriate manner.

B18. Subject to the MFSA approval, the limit in paragraph B17 above may be raised to 35%, where, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, this is justified by exceptional market conditions. The investment up to this limit is only permitted for a single issuer.

If the Company invests in units of other Scheme which is also managed by the manager's Scheme or an associate of this manager, arrangements will be made to eliminate one set of management charges.

Risk Management

The Investment Manager will use a risk management process which has been previously agreed with the Custodian and the MFSA. Any material alteration of this process should be agreed in advance with the Custodian and the MFSA.

This management process will consist on a general risk management master procedure, which contains the general risk management rules applicable to all the Funds under the Company, and additionally a specific risk management appendix for each particular Fund which will be adapted to the relevant risk-profile and the complexity of each Fund, enabling it to monitor, and measure and manage at any time as frequently as appropriate, all material risks relating to the Funds' positions and their contribution to the overall risk profile of each Fund, in accordance with and subject to the MFSA Rules. The risk management process will take account of the investment objectives and policies of each Fund, as stated in the corresponding offering supplements. The Investment Manager will provide Shareholders, upon request, with supplementary information relating to the quantitative limits that apply in the risk management of the relevant Fund, the methods chosen to this end and to the recent evolution of the main instrument categories' risks and yields. The Risk Management Processes will consist on a quantitative and qualitative analysis that will be conducted on a daily basis in order to constantly monitor the risks associated with the investments in the portfolio. This methodology will consists on the commitment approach this is, as for the limitation to a Funds' global exposure on derivatives and overall risk exposure it has been adopted the recommendation that the global exposure relating to financial derivative instruments may not exceed 100 % of the Fund's net asset value (NAV), and hence that the Funds' overall risk exposure may not exceed 200 % of the NAV on a permanent basis.

Income Allocation

Each Fund will have an Annual Income Allocation Date, as specified in the relevant Supplement, which shall in any event be a date within two Months following the end of the relevant Accounting Period. Income and capital gains / losses shall be allocated for each Fund in accordance with the MFSA Rules.

Since all the Shares of the Funds are accumulation Shares, the amount allocated to accumulation Shares shall, with effect from the end of each annual accounting period, become part of the capital property and be reflected by an increase, as at the end of the period in the value of the property of the Company which an accumulation Share represents.

Dividend Policy

All Funds and share Classes are issued as accumulation shares, and therefore no dividends will be paid in respect thereof and the entire net profits (if any) attributable to such Class will be accumulated within the Net Asset Value of, and reflected in the price of, Shares of such Class.

RISK FACTORS

The discussion below is of general nature and is intended to describe various risk factors which may be associated with an investment in the Shares of a Fund to which the attention of investors is drawn. See also the section of the relevant Supplement headed " Specific Risk Factors" for a discussion of any additional risks particular to Shares of that Fund However, these are not intended to be exhaustive and there may be other considerations that should be taken into account in relation to an investment in any Fund. Investors should consult their own advisors before considering an investment in the Shares of a particular Fund. What factors will be of relevance to the Shares of a particular Fund will depend upon a number of interrelated matters including, but not limited to, the nature of the Shares, the Fund Assets, the Underlying (if applicable), and the techniques used to link the Fund Assets to the Underlying (if applicable).

No investment should be made in the Shares of a particular Fund until careful consideration of all those factors has been made.

Introduction

The investments of the Company in securities are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities. The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of and income from Shares relating to each Fund can go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount he invested. Changes in exchange rates between currencies or the conversion from one currency to another may also cause the value of the investments to diminish or increase. An investment in Shares should be viewed as medium to long term. An investment in a Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio of any investor and may not be appropriate for all investors.

An investment in the Shares involves risks. These risks may include or relate to, among others, equity market, bond market, foreign exchange, interest rate, credit, market volatility and political risks and any combination of these and other risks. Some of these risk factors are briefly discussed below. Prospective investors should be experienced with respect to transactions in instruments such as the Shares, the Fund Assets, the Underlying (if applicable) and the techniques used to link the Fund Asset to the Underlying (if applicable). Investors should understand the risks associated with an investment in the Shares and should only reach an investment decision after careful consideration with their legal, tax, accounting, financial and other advisors of (i) the suitability of an investment in the Shares in the light of their own particular financial, fiscal and other circumstances, (ii) the information set out in this Prospectus, the relevant Supplement and the KIIDs (Key Investor Information Document, (iii) the nature of the Underlying (if applicable), (iv) the risks associated with the use by the Fund of derivative techniques (if applicable), (v) the nature of the Fund Assets , and (vi) information set out in the relevant Supplement.

Investors in the Shares should recognise that the Shares may decline in value and should be prepared to sustain a total loss of their investment in the Shares. Even where the Shares contain some form of capital protection feature via the investment in the Fund Assets (such form of capital protection feature - if any - being described in the relevant Supplement), the protection feature may not be fully applicable to the initial investment made by an investor in the Shares, especially (i) when the purchase, sale or subscription of the Shares does not take place during the Initial Offer Period, (ii) when Shares are repurchased or sold before their Scheduled Maturity Date (if any) or (iii) when the Fund Assets or the techniques used to link the Fund Assets to the Underlying fail to deliver the expected returns. An investment in the Shares should only be made after assessing the direction, timing and magnitude of potential future changes in the value of the Underlying and the Fund Assets, as the return of any such investment will be dependent, inter alia, upon such changes.

Risk factors may occur simultaneously and/or may compound each other resulting in an unpredictable effect on the value of the Shares. No assurance can be given as to the effect that any combination of risk factors may have on the value of the Shares.

Risk of Multi-Fund Structure

The Company is formed as a multi-fund (umbrella) investment company with variable share capital and can establish an unlimited number of distinct Funds each represented by one or more Classes of Shares. Pursuant to the appropriate election made in the Articles and the provisions of the SICAV Regulations, the assets and liabilities of each individual Fund comprised in the Company will for all intents and purposes of law constitute a patrimony separate from the assets and liabilities of each other Fund of the Company so that the assets of one Fund will be available exclusively for the creditors and holders of Shares in that Fund only, and an Investor's interest will accordingly be limited to the assets and liabilities represented by the Class/es of Shares constituting the Fund in which he invests. Investors should, however, be aware that the Company is a single legal entity and no Fund in the Company constitutes a legal entity separate from the Company, that to the Directors' knowledge the above mentioned provisions of Maltese law (in particular those relating to segregation of Funds and their respective assets and liabilities under the SICAV Regulations) have not, as at the date hereof, been tested by the courts of Malta, and that the Company is an entity that may be subject to claims in other jurisdictions and in the courts or other competent authorities thereof and the Company and the Directors cannot give guarantees that such courts and authorities will necessarily recognise and give effect to such segregation of the Funds (and their respective assets and liabilities), and in these circumstances, there is a risk that the assets of one Fund may be applied to meet the liabilities of another Fund of the Company or of the Company, whose assets are exhausted.

As at the date hereof, the Directors are not aware of any instances where the treatment of segregated assets and liabilities of distinct Funds of an investment company with variable share capital under Maltese law, as described above, has been challenged successfully against any entity, either in Malta or in any jurisdiction, where the Shares of a Fund are to be distributed or where the investments or transactions of a Fund are to be made.

Start-Up Periods

A Fund and the Investment Manager may, during the start-up period of the Fund, incur certain risks relating to the initial investment of newly contributed assets. Moreover, the start-up period also represents a special risk in that the level of diversification of the general portfolio of the Fund may be lower than in a fully-committed portfolio. The Investment Manager may employ different procedures for moving to a fully-committed portfolio. These procedures will be based in part on market judgment. No assurance can be given that these procedures will be successful.

Risks arising from the sub-custodian agreements in which the custodian might enter

The Custodian may appoint sub-custodians, agents or delegates ("Correspondents") to hold the assets of the Company. The liability of the Custodian shall not be affected by the fact that it has entrusted to a third party all or some of the assets in its safekeeping. Assets held with Correspondents may be held in pooled accounts provided they are segregated from the Custodian's proprietary assets. The Custodian's liability for loss or prejudice arising from the insolvency, acts or omissions of Correspondents, and of clearing systems, settlement systems, dematerialised book entry systems, central securities depositories or similar systems used by the Custodian, is limited in terms of the relevant Custody Agreement. Accordingly, in the event of any loss or prejudice arising from the insolvency, acts and omissions of such persons, the Company may have to enforce its rights against such persons directly. Furthermore, any delegation made by the Custodian pursuant to any Custody Agreement poses credit or counterparty risk and operational and legal risk and may be susceptible to systemic risk; if any such risk materialises, assets of the Fund may be lost or become unavailable (for instance, if the Fund's assets are not segregated on the Correspondent's books, the Fund's assets cannot be identified and reattributed to the Fund, or if the Correspondent becomes insolvent, the Company or its investors may not be able to claim back their assets immediately)..

Risks Arising from the delegation of functions to the Services Providers

The Company has granted indemnities to the Custodian, the Administrator and the Investment Manager, and each of their Directors, Officers, employees and agents in respect of actions brought against them in their respective capacities provided that such actions did not involve wilful misconduct, bad faith, negligence or material breach of their obligations and duties under the relative agreements, which are available to investors upon request free of charge, at the Company's registered office and the office of the Administrator.

Risks Arising from the basis of calculation of any performance fees

There are certain risks associated to those Funds where performance fees are charged.

The Investment Manager will receive a performance fee from the assets of the Fund based on a percentage of profits. Performance fees may create an incentive for the Investment Manager to make investments that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case in the absence of such incentive compensation arrangements.

The Investment Manager shall not operate an equalisation account, or any other method to ensure the equal treatment of Investors entering or exiting the Fund at different moments in time. This may lead prospective and current Investors subscribing for Shares (of any class) as well as Investors redeeming their Shares (of any class) to indirectly under/over pay an under/over performance fee accrual as the case may be.

The performance fee may be based on both realized and unrealized gains and as a result may be paid on unrealized gains which may subsequently never be realized.

The amount of performance fees that may be payable are not subject to any cap or maximum nominal amount.

General Risk Factors

Valuation of the Underlying and the Fund Assets

Investors in the Shares should be aware that such an investment involves assessing the risk of an investment linked to the Underlying and, where applicable, the Fund Assets and the techniques used to link the Fund Assets to the Underlying. Investors should be experienced with respect to transactions involving the purchase of Shares the value of which derives from an Underlying possibly in combination with a Fund Asset. The value of the Underlying and the Fund Assets and the value of the techniques used to link them may vary over time and may increase or decrease by reference to a variety of factors which may include, amongst others, corporate actions, macro economic factors and speculation. Where the Underlying is a basket of securities or one or more indices, the changes in the value of any one security or index may be offset or intensified by fluctuations in the value of other securities or indices which comprise such constituents of the Underlying or by changes in the value of the Fund Assets themselves.

Exchange Rates

Investors in the Shares should be aware that an investment in the Shares may involve exchange rate risks. For example (i) the Underlying may directly or indirectly provide exposure to a number of different currencies of emerging market or developed countries; (ii) the Underlying and/or the Fund Assets may be denominated in a currency other than the Base Currency; (iii) the Shares may be denominated in a currency other than the currency of the investor's home jurisdiction; and/or (iv) the Shares may be denominated in a currency other than the currency in which an investor wishes to receive his monies. Exchange rates between currencies are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets, which are influenced by macro economic factors (such as the economic development in the different currency areas, interest rates and international capital movements), speculation and central bank and government intervention (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). Fluctuations in exchange rates may affect the value of the Shares.

Interest Rate

Investors in the Shares should be aware that an investment in the Shares may involve interest rate risk in that there may be fluctuations in the currency of denomination of the Underlying and/or the Fund Assets (if applicable) and/or the Shares.

Interest rates are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international money markets which are influenced by macro economic factors, speculation and central bank and government intervention. Fluctuations in short term and/or long term interest rates may affect the value of the Shares. Fluctuations in interest rates of the currency in which the Shares are denominated and/or fluctuations in interest rates of the currency or currencies in which the Underlying and/or the Fund Asset are denominated may affect the value of the Shares.

Market Volatility

Market volatility reflects the degree of instability and expected instability of the performance of the Shares, the Underlying and/or the Fund Assets, and/or the techniques to link the Fund Assets to the Underlying, where applicable. The level of market volatility is not purely a measurement of the actual volatility, but is largely determined by the prices for instruments which offer investors protection against such market volatility. The prices of these instruments are determined by forces of supply and demand in the options and derivatives markets generally. These forces are, themselves, affected by factors such as actual market volatility, expected volatility, macro economic factors and speculation.

Credit Risk

Investors in the Shares should be aware that such an investment may involve credit risk. Bonds or other debt securities involve credit risk to the issuer which may be evidenced by the issuer's credit rating. Securities which are subordinated and/or have a lower credit rating are generally considered to have a higher credit risk and a greater possibility of default than more highly rated securities. In the event that any issuer of bonds or other debt securities experiences financial or economic difficulties, this may affect the value of the relevant securities (which may be zero) and any amounts paid on such securities (which may be zero). This may in turn affect the Net Asset Value per Share. Investors in any Fund whose performance is linked to an Underlying should be aware that the Fund Assets for any such Fund will generally include bonds or other debt instruments that involve credit risk. Moreover, where such Fund provides for a capital protection feature, the functioning of such feature will often be dependent on the due payment of the interest and principal amounts on the bonds or other debt instruments in which the Fund is invested as the Fund Asset.

Other Risk Factors

Credit Derivatives

Credit risk refers to the risk that a company (referred to as the "reference entity") may fail to perform its payment obligations under a transaction when they are due to be performed as a result of a deterioration in its financial condition. This is a risk for the other companies or parties which enter into transactions with the reference entity or in some other way have exposure to the credit of the reference entity. The term transactions is used widely. It can include loan agreements entered into by the reference entity and also securities issued by the reference entity.

The parties which bear credit risk of a reference entity may seek to pass on this risk through a "credit derivative transaction" with other companies. A derivative is a financial instrument which derives its value from an Underlying or variable. In the case of a credit derivative transaction the credit risk of the reference entity defaulting is the relevant variable. Many financial institutions or banks will regularly quote prices for entering into or selling a credit derivative transaction. For a financial institution or bank credit derivatives transactions may be a large part of its business. Prices are quoted on the basis of an analysis of the credit risk of the relevant reference entity. If participants in the credit derivatives market think that a credit event (as described in the following paragraph) is likely to occur in relation to a particular reference entity, then the cost of buying credit protection through a credit derivative transaction will increase. This is regardless of whether or not there has been an actual default by the reference entity. The party to the credit derivative transaction which purchases credit protection is referred to as the "credit protection buyer" and the party which sells the credit protection is referred to as the "credit protection seller".

The credit protection buyer and credit protection seller will agree between them the types of event which may constitute a "credit event" in relation to the relevant reference entity. Typical credit events include (i) the insolvency of the reference entity (ii) its failure to pay a specified amount (iii) a restructuring of the debt owed or guaranteed by the reference entity due to a deterioration in its financial condition (iv) a repudiation or moratorium where the reference entity announces that it will no longer make certain payments or agrees with its lenders a delay or deferral in making payments or (v) a requirement that the reference entity accelerate payment of its obligation. To a large extent the credit events are determined by reference to specified obligations of the reference entity or obligations guaranteed by the reference entity, as selected by the credit protection buyer. These are referred to as “reference obligations”.

If a specified credit event occurs in respect of the relevant reference entity, or in respect of a reference obligation, the credit protection seller may be obliged to purchase the reference obligation at par (typically 100 per cent of its face amount) from the credit protection buyer. The credit protection seller can then sell the obligation in the market at the market price which is expected to be lower than par (because the reference entity has suffered a credit event, its obligations are less likely to be met and therefore are worth less in the market). The proceeds of sale are called “recoveries”. The loss that the credit protection seller incurs (par value minus recoveries) is assumed to be the same as the loss that a holder of such obligation would incur following the occurrence of a credit event. This type of credit derivative transaction is referred to as a “physically settled credit derivative transaction”.

Often credit derivative transactions are drafted such that there is no physical delivery of the relevant obligation against the payment of the par value. Instead, the recovery value is determined by obtaining quotations for the reference obligation from other credit derivatives market participants. Following market practice, a credit protection buyer is likely to select a reference obligation with the lowest market value. Consequently the recovery value will be less than would otherwise be the case. The credit protection seller must then make a payment (sometimes referred to as a loss amount) to the credit protection buyer equal to the difference between par value and recovery value. This is referred to as a “cash settled credit derivative transaction. If no specified credit event occurs, the credit protection seller receives periodic payments from the credit protection buyer for the credit protection it provides but does not have to make any payments to the credit protection buyer. These are referred to as credit premiums. Typically the credit protection buyer acts as calculation agent and makes all determinations in relation to the credit derivative transaction.

Credit portfolio transactions

A number of banks and financial institutions structure credit derivative transactions known as “credit portfolio transactions”. This refers to there being a portfolio of reference entities rather than a single reference entity. Each reference entity represents a certain proportion of the portfolio. Where a credit event occurs in relation to a reference entity, that reference entity will be removed from the portfolio and, in the case of a cash settled credit derivative transaction, the credit protection seller will pay the relevant cash amount to the credit protection buyer.

In relation to credit portfolio transactions, there are often a number of different credit protection sellers arranged in an order of priority. The part of the credit portfolio for which a credit protection seller is responsible is referred to as a tranche. Each credit protection seller will be responsible for paying the relevant amounts following a credit event, depending on the position of their particular tranche in the credit portfolio. For example, the credit protection seller in relation to the lowest tranche, often referred to as the “equity tranche”, will pay loss amounts to the credit protection buyer up to a certain limit. These loss amounts will become payable in relation to the first credit event to occur in the credit portfolio and also subsequent credit events. However when the credit protection seller in relation to the lowest tranche has paid loss amounts up to the relevant limit it has no further obligations. This limit is referred to as the threshold amount in relation to the next tranche. Where subsequent credit events occur the credit protection seller in relation to the next tranche will then be required to pay amounts up to its agreed limit and so on. It is more likely that the credit protection seller in relation to the lowest tranche of the credit portfolio will be required to pay amounts to the credit protection buyer. On the other hand it is less likely that the credit protection seller in relation to the highest tranche of the credit portfolio will be required to pay amounts to the credit protection buyer.

The credit premiums payable by the credit protection buyer reflect the different levels of risk assumed by a credit protection seller. A high credit premium will be payable to the credit protection seller in relation to the lowest tranche and a lower credit premium will be payable to the credit protection seller in relation to the highest tranche.

Credit linked securities

Credit linked securities are structured so that amounts payable under the securities are determined in whole or in part by reference to a credit derivative transaction. Credit linked securities may relate to a credit derivative transaction on a single reference entity or on a portfolio of reference entities. Many credit linked securities are issued by companies resident in an offshore jurisdiction (also known as special purpose vehicles). These issuers typically use the issue proceeds of the securities to purchase other securities issued by a third party issuer (referred to as "collateral"). At the same time the issuer enters into a credit derivative transaction with a swap counterparty, also sometimes known as a "hedging counterparty". The issuer acts as the credit protection seller and the hedging counterparty is the credit protection buyer. In economic terms it might also be said the security holders act as credit protection sellers. In exchange for the credit protection, the hedging counterparty will pay certain credit premiums to the issuer which it may pass on to security holders in the form of interest payments. The issuer may also enter into other hedging arrangements such as an asset hedging agreement under which the issuer may swap all payment flows of the collateral for all amounts owing to the security holders. Where a credit event occurs under the credit derivative transaction requiring the issuer to make a payment under the credit derivative transaction, the issuer will realise an amount of the collateral to satisfy that obligation. In relation to a credit portfolio transaction this obligation will only arise where the credit protection provided by lower tranche(s) of the credit portfolio has already been used up. Where collateral is realised, the outstanding nominal amount or other relevant value of the securities will be reduced. To the extent that all the collateral is fully applied in this way, then the securities will be worthless and will be terminated early at zero. If the securities remain outstanding at maturity then the amount of collateral remaining, if any, will be applied to paying redemption amounts to security holders.

Credit Ratings

Credit ratings are assigned by rating agencies such as Standard & Poor's (S&P), Fitch or Moody's, or other credit rating agencies, including those regulated under EU law. It is important to understand the nature of credit ratings in order to understand the nature of the Securities. The level of a credit rating is an indication of the probability that (in the opinion of the rating agency) payments will be made on the relevant bond(s) or other obligation(s) to which the credit rating relates. Bonds with a rating of AAA, AA, A or BBB by S&P are called "investment grade" bonds and this indicates that the risk of a failure to repay amounts is limited. While credit ratings can be a useful tool for financial analysis, they are not a guarantee of quality or a guarantee of future performance in relation to the relevant obligations. Ratings assigned to securities by rating agencies may not fully reflect the true risks of an investment. Ratings may also be withdrawn at any time.

Liquidity Risk

Certain types of assets or securities may be difficult to buy or sell, particularly during adverse market conditions. This may affect the ability to obtain prices for the components of the Underlying and may therefore affect the value of the Underlying. This may in turn affect the Net Asset Value per Share.

Additional risks associated with an Underlying linked to specific types of securities or assets

There are special risk considerations associated with an Underlying of which the performance is linked directly or indirectly to the following types of securities or assets. The degree of exposure to such factors will depend on the precise way in which the Underlying is linked to such assets.

- Hedge Funds and other Alternative Investment Funds

The Company will be investing from time to time in hedge funds and other alternative investment funds (together Alternative Investment Fund). This will be achieved by using different types of instruments, such as OTCs, FDI's, UCITs, and non-UCITs funds. Those instruments will qualify under the different permissible investments addressed in section "Permitted Investments" of this Prospectus, and depending on the instruments used, an investment limit will apply, in accordance to section "Investment Limits" of this Prospectus.

A Fund may not invest more than 10% of its assets in Collective Investments Schemes other than those referred to in paragraphs A4 and A5 of the Section Permitted Investments above.

The following is a non-exhaustive list of the risks associated with

Trading Advisor: the performance of an Alternative Investment Fund will depend on the performance of the investments selected by the relevant trading advisor (the "Trading Advisor" in respect of an Alternative Investment Fund is the entity which provides investment management services to the Alternative Investment Fund) and, to a great extent, upon the expertise of key individuals associated with the day-to-day operations of the Trading Advisor. Any withdrawal or other cessation of investment activities on behalf of the Trading Advisor by any of these individuals could result in losses and/or the termination or the dissolution of the relevant Alternative Investment Fund. The investment strategy, investment restrictions and investment objectives of an Alternative Investment Fund give its Trading Advisor considerable discretion to invest the assets thereof and there can be no guarantee that the Trading Advisor's investment decisions will be profitable or will effectively hedge against the risk of market or other conditions causing the value of the relevant Alternative Investment Fund to decline. A Trading Advisor will receive performance related fees, which may be substantial. The manner of calculating such fees may create an incentive for the Trading Advisor to make investments that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case if such fees were not paid to the Trading Advisor. In addition, since the performance fees may be calculated on a basis that includes both unrealised and realised gains on the relevant Alternative Investment Fund's assets, such fees may be greater than if they were based solely on realised gains.

Unregulated Alternative Investment Funds: Alternative Investment Funds may be domiciled in jurisdictions which do not have a regulatory regime which provides an equivalent level of shareholder protection as that provided under Maltese law. An unregulated Alternative Investment Fund is one in which the management, trustee and custodial arrangements, constitution and investment objectives do not provide an equivalent level of investor protection as that provided by schemes authorised under Maltese laws and regulations and conditions governing collective investment schemes.

Lack of segregation of assets: a prime broker will be, or will have been, appointed in relation to an Alternative Investment Fund and will accordingly be responsible for custody, clearing, financing and reporting services with respect to the securities transactions entered into by the relevant Trading Advisor. Where investments by an Alternative Investment Fund are classified by the relevant prime broker as Collateral, they may not be segregated by such prime broker from its own investments. As a result, such investments may be available to the creditors of such prime broker in the event of its insolvency and the relevant Alternative Investment Fund may lose some or all of its interest in such investments.

Hedging risks: a Trading Advisor may utilise warrants, futures, forward contracts, swaps, options and other derivative instruments involving securities, currencies, interest rates, commodities and other asset categories (and combinations of the foregoing) for the purposes of establishing "market neutral" arbitrage positions as part of its trading strategies and to hedge against movements in the capital markets. Hedging against a decline in the value of a portfolio position does not eliminate fluctuations in the values of portfolio positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline, but establishes other positions designed to gain from those same developments, thus moderating the decline in the portfolio positions' value. Such hedging transactions may also limit the opportunity for gain if the value of the portfolio position should increase. Moreover, it may not always be possible for the Trading Advisor to execute hedging transactions, or to do so at prices, rates or levels advantageous to the Alternative Investment

Fund. The success of any hedging transactions will be subject to the movements in the direction of securities prices and currency and interest rates, and stability or predictability of pricing relationships. Therefore, while an Alternative Investment Fund might enter into such transactions to reduce currency exchange rate and interest rate risks, unanticipated changes in currency or interest rates may result in poorer overall performance for the Alternative Investment Fund than if it had not engaged in any such hedging transactions. In addition, the degree of correlation between price movements of the instruments used in a hedging strategy and price movements in the portfolio position being hedged may vary. Moreover, for a variety of reasons, the relevant Trading Advisor may not be able to, or may not seek to, establish a perfect correlation between such hedging instruments and the portfolio holdings being hedged. An imperfect correlation may prevent an Alternative Investment Fund from achieving the intended hedge or expose an Alternative Investment Fund to risk of loss.

Leverage: Alternative Investment Funds may be able to borrow (or employ leverage) without limitation and may utilise various lines of credit and other forms of leverage, including swaps and repurchase agreements. While leverage presents opportunities for increasing an Alternative Investment Fund's total return, it has the effect of potentially increasing losses as well. If income and appreciation on investments made with borrowed funds are less than the required interest payments on the borrowings, the value of the Alternative Investment Fund will decrease. Additionally, any event which adversely affects the value of an investment by an Alternative Investment Fund would be magnified to the extent such Alternative Investment Fund is leveraged. The cumulative effect of the use of leverage by an Alternative Investment Fund in a market that moves adversely to such Alternative Investment Fund's investments could result in a substantial loss to the Alternative Investment Fund that would be greater than if the Alternative Investment Fund were not leveraged. Furthermore, any use by the Alternative Investment Fund of swaps and other derivatives to gain exposure to certain Alternative Investment Funds will leverage the Alternative Investment Fund's assets, and subject it to the risks described above. Two further specific risks are:

- (a) interest rates: interest rates and changes in interest rates may affect the net asset value of the Alternative Investment Fund if the relevant Trading Advisor employs leverage. The level of interest rates generally, and the rates at which the relevant Alternative Investment Fund can borrow, will affect its returns and therefore the Alternative Investment Fund; and
- (b) operational and market risks: small hedging errors may be amplified by leverage into major duration imbalances that render an investment exposed to directional shifts in the yield curve and may lead to a total loss of the leveraged investment. Hedges may fail to replicate target investments due to uncorrelated changes in spreads between various instruments, resulting in large unexpected losses. In addition, it is operationally difficult to manage a leveraged portfolio of complex instruments, not only because positions must be monitored for asset performance, but also because prices must be determined and valuation disputes with counterparties resolved to ensure adequate maintenance of Collateral for hedging or funding contracts. Failure to do so can lead to defaults on margin maintenance requirements and can expose an Alternative Investment Fund to the withdrawal of credit lines necessary to fund asset positions.

Risks associated with the use of margin borrowings: a Trading Advisor's anticipated use of short-term margin borrowings will result in certain additional risks to the Alternative Investment Fund. For example, if securities pledged to brokers to secure an Alternative Investment Fund's margin accounts decline in value, such Alternative Investment Fund could be subject to a "margin call", pursuant to which it must either deposit additional funds with the managed account for subsequent deposit with the broker or be the subject of mandatory liquidation of the pledged securities to compensate for the decline in value. In the event of a sudden precipitous drop in the value of the relevant Alternative Investment Fund's assets, the Trading Advisor might not be able to liquidate assets quickly enough to pay off the margin debt. In such a case, the relevant prime broker may liquidate additional assets of the Alternative Investment Fund, in its sole discretion, in order to satisfy such margin debt. The premiums for certain options traded on non-U.S. exchanges may be paid for on margin. If the Trading Advisor sells an option on a futures contract from the relevant managed account, it may be required to deposit margin in an amount equal to the margin requirement established for the futures contract underlying the option and, in addition, an amount substantially equal to the premium for the option. The margin requirements imposed on the writing of options, although adjusted to reflect the probability that out-of-the-money options will not be exercised, can in fact be higher than those imposed in dealing in the futures markets directly. Whether any margin deposit will be required for over-the-counter options will depend on the agreement of the parties to the transaction.

Low credit quality securities: The Alternative Investment Fund may make particularly risky investments that may offer the potential for correspondingly high returns. As a result, an Alternative Investment Fund may lose all or substantially all of its investment in any particular instance. In addition, there is no minimum credit standard which is a prerequisite to an Alternative Investment Fund's investment in any security. The debt securities in which an Alternative Investment Fund is permitted to invest may be rated lower than "investment grade" and hence may be considered to be "junk bonds" or distressed securities.

Distressed securities: Alternative Investment Funds may invest in securities of U.S. and non-U.S. issuers in weak financial condition, experiencing poor operating results, having substantial capital needs or negative net worth, facing special competitive or product obsolescence problems, or that are involved in bankruptcy or reorganisation proceedings. Investments of this type may involve substantial financial and business risks that can result in substantial or even total losses. Among the risks inherent in investments in troubled entities is the fact that it frequently may be difficult to obtain information as to the true condition of such issuers. Such investments also may be adversely affected by laws relating to, among other things, fraudulent transfers and other voidable transfers or payments, lender liability and a court's power to disallow, reduce, subordinate or disenfranchise particular claims. The market prices of such securities are also subject to abrupt and erratic market movements and above average price volatility, and the spread between the bid and asked prices of such securities may be greater than those prevailing in other securities markets. It may take a number of years for the market price of such securities to reflect their intrinsic value. In liquidation (both in and out of bankruptcy) and other forms of corporate reorganisation, there exists the risk that the reorganisation will be unsuccessful (due to, for example, failure to obtain requisite approvals), will be delayed (for example, until various liabilities, actual or contingent, have been satisfied) or will result in a distribution to the Alternative Investment Fund of cash or a new security the value of which will be less than the purchase price of the security in respect to which such distribution was made.

Derivatives: certain Alternative Investment Funds may invest in complex derivative instruments which seek to modify or replace the investment performance of particular securities, commodities, currencies, interest rates, indices or markets on a leveraged or unleveraged basis. These instruments generally have counterparty risk and may not perform in the manner expected by the counterparties, thereby resulting in greater loss or gain to the investor. These investments are all subject to additional risks that can result in a loss of all or part of an investment, in particular, interest rate and credit risk, volatility, world and local market price and demand, and general economic factors and activity. Derivatives may have very high leverage embedded in them that can substantially magnify market movements and result in losses greater than the amount of the investment. The Alternative Investment Fund's may also buy or sell options on a variety of Underlyings. Risk of writing (selling) options is unlimited in that the writer of the option must purchase (in the case of a put) or sell (in the case of a call) the underlying security at a certain price upon exercise. There is no limit on the price an Alternative Investment Fund may have to pay to meet its obligations as an option writer. As assets that can have no value at their expiration, options can introduce a significant additional element of leverage and risk to an Alternative Investment Fund's market exposure. The use of certain options strategies can subject an Alternative Investment Fund to investment losses that are significant even in the context of positions for which the relevant Trading Advisor has correctly anticipated the direction of market prices or price relationships.

Special risks associated with trading in over-the-counter derivatives: some of the markets in which an Alternative Investment Fund may effect derivative transactions are "over-the-counter" or "interdealer" markets, which may be illiquid and are sometimes subject to larger spreads than exchange-traded derivative transactions. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight, which would be the case with members of “exchange-based” markets. This exposes the Alternative Investment Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction in accordance with its terms and conditions because of a credit or liquidity problem with the counterparty. Delays in settlement may also result from disputes over the terms of the contract (whether or not bona fide) since such markets may lack the established rules and procedures for swift settlement of disputes among market participants found in “exchange-based” markets. These factors may cause an Alternative Investment Fund to suffer a loss due to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed or otherwise. Such “counterparty risk” is present in all swaps, and is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Alternative Investment Fund has concentrated its transactions with a single or small group of counterparties. An Alternative Investment Fund generally is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. In addition, if a Trading Advisor engages in such over-the-counter transactions, the relevant Alternative Investment Fund will be exposed to the risk that the counterparty (usually the relevant prime broker) will fail to perform its obligations under the transaction. The valuation of over-the-counter derivative transactions is also subject to greater uncertainty and variation than that of exchange-traded derivatives. The “replacement” value of a derivative transaction may differ from the “liquidation” value of such transaction, and the valuations provided by an Alternative Investment Fund's counterparty to such transactions may differ from the valuations provided by a third party or the value upon liquidation of the transaction. Under certain circumstances it may not be possible for an Alternative Investment Fund to obtain market quotations for the value of an over-the-counter derivatives transaction. An Alternative Investment Fund may also be unable to close out or enter into an offsetting over-the-counter derivative transaction at a time it desires to do so, resulting in significant losses. In particular, the closing-out of an over-the-counter derivative transaction may only be effected with the consent of the counterparty to the transaction. If such consent is not obtained, an Alternative Investment Fund will not be able to close out its obligations and may suffer losses.

Illiquid investments: certain Alternative Investment Funds may make investments which are subject to legal or other restrictions on transfer or for which no liquid market exists, such as private placements. The market prices, if any, of such investments tend to be more volatile and it may be impossible to sell such investments when desired or to realise their fair value in the event of a sale. Moreover, securities in which an Alternative Investment Fund may invest include those that are not listed on a stock exchange or traded in an over-the-counter market. As a result of the absence of a public trading market for these securities, they are likely to be less liquid than publicly traded securities. There may be substantial delays in attempting to sell non-publicly traded securities. Although these securities may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realised from these sales could be less than those originally paid. Furthermore, companies whose securities are not registered or publicly traded are not subject to the disclosure and other investor protection requirements which would be applicable if their securities were registered or publicly traded. In addition, futures positions may become illiquid because, for example, most U.S. commodity exchanges limit fluctuations in certain futures contract prices during a single day by regulations referred to as “daily price fluctuation limits” or “daily limits”. Under such daily limits, no trades may be executed at prices beyond the daily limits. Once the price of a contract for a particular future has increased or decreased by an amount equal to the daily limit, positions can neither be taken nor liquidated unless traders are willing to effect trades at or within the limit. Futures contract prices in various commodities occasionally have exceeded the daily limit for several consecutive days with little or no trading. Similar occurrences could prevent a Trading Advisor from promptly liquidating unfavourable positions and subject the relevant Alternative Investment Fund to substantial losses. In addition, an exchange or regulatory authority may suspend trading in a particular contract, order immediate liquidation and settlement of a particular contract, or order that trading in a particular contract be conducted for liquidation only. The illiquidity of positions may result in significant unanticipated losses.

Legal and regulatory risks: legal and regulatory changes could adversely affect an Alternative Investment Fund. Regulation of investment vehicles such as the Alternative Investment Fund, and of many of the investments a Trading Advisor is permitted to make on behalf of an Alternative Investment Fund, is still evolving and therefore subject to change. In addition, many governmental agencies, self-regulatory organisations and exchanges are authorised to take extraordinary actions in the event of market emergencies. The effect of any future legal or regulatory change on an Alternative Investment Fund is impossible to predict, but could be substantial and adverse.

Short-selling: a short sale involves the sale of a security that an Alternative Investment Fund does not own in the hope of purchasing the same security (or a security exchangeable for such security) at a later date at a lower price. To make delivery to the buyer, the Alternative Investment Fund must borrow the security and is obligated to return the security to the lender, which is accomplished by a later purchase of the security. The Alternative Investment Fund realises a profit or a loss as a result of a short sale if the price of the security decreases or increases respectively between the date of the short sale and the date on which the Alternative Investment Fund covers its short position, i.e., purchases the security to replace the borrowed security. A short sale involves the theoretically unlimited risk of an increase in the market price of the security that would result in a theoretically unlimited loss.

Commodity Futures: commodity futures markets are highly volatile. Alternative Investment Funds investing in these commodity markets must be able to analyse correctly such markets, which are influenced by, among other things, changing supply and demand relationships, weather, governmental, agricultural, commercial and trade programmes and policies designed to influence commodity prices, world political and economic events, and changes in interest rates. Moreover, investments in futures and options contracts involve additional risks including, without limitation, leverage (margin is usually only 5-15% of the face value of the contract and exposure can be nearly unlimited). An Alternative Investment Fund's futures positions may be illiquid because certain commodity exchanges limit fluctuations in certain futures contract prices during a single day by regulations referred to as "daily price fluctuation limits" or "daily limits". Under such daily limits, during a single trading day no trades may be executed at prices beyond the daily limits. Once the price of a contract for a particular future has increased or decreased by an amount equal to the daily limit, positions in the future can neither be taken nor liquidated unless traders are willing to effect trades at or within the limit. This could prevent an Alternative Investment Fund from promptly liquidating unfavourable positions and subject it to substantial losses.

Alternative Investment Fund compensation: an Alternative Investment Fund typically provides for a performance fee or allocation, over and above a basic advisory fee, to its general partner, Trading Advisor or person serving in an equivalent capacity. Performance fees or allocations could create an incentive for a Trading Advisor to choose riskier or more speculative underlying investments than would otherwise be the case.

Soft commissions: in selecting brokers, banks and dealers to effect transactions on behalf of an Alternative Investment Fund, the relevant Trading Advisor may consider such factors as price, the ability of the brokers, banks and dealers to effect transactions promptly and reliably, their facilities, the operational efficiency with which transactions are effected, their financial strength, integrity and stability and the competitiveness of commission rates in comparison with other brokers, banks and dealers, as well as the quality, comprehensiveness and frequency of any products or services provided, or expenses paid, by such brokers, banks and dealers. Products and services may include research items used by the Trading Advisor in making investment decisions, and expenses may include general overhead expenses of the Trading Advisor. Such soft commissions may cause an Alternative Investment Fund manager to execute a transaction with a specific broker, bank, or dealer even though it may not offer the lowest transaction fees. A Trading Advisor is not required to (i) obtain the lowest brokerage commission rates or (ii) combine or arrange orders to obtain the lowest brokerage commission rates on its brokerage business. If a Trading Advisor determines that the amount of commissions charged by a broker is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research products or services provided by such broker, it may execute transactions for which such broker's commissions are greater than the commissions another broker might charge. Such brokerage commissions may be paid to brokers who execute transactions for the relevant managed account and which supply, pay for or rebate a portion of the Alternative Investment Fund's brokerage commissions to Alternative Investment Funds for payment of the cost of property or services (such as research services, telephone lines, news and quotation equipment, computer facilities and publications) utilised by the relevant Trading Advisor or its affiliates. A Trading Advisor will have the option to use soft commissions generated by its investment activities to pay for the property and services described above. The term soft commissions refers to the receipt by a Trading Advisor of property and services provided by brokers (or futures commission merchants in connection with futures transactions) without any cash payment by such Trading Advisor based on the volume of revenues generated from brokerage commissions for transactions executed for clients of the Trading Advisor. A Trading Advisor will consider the amount and nature of research services provided by brokers, as well as the extent to which such services are relied upon, and will attempt to allocate a portion of the brokerage business of the relevant managed account on the basis of those considerations.

Highly volatile markets: the prices of commodities contracts and all derivative instruments, including futures and options prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts, and other derivative contracts in which Alternative Investment Funds may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and U.S. and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations. Alternative Investment Funds also are subject to the risk of the failure of any of the exchanges on which their positions trade or of their clearing houses.

Investments in non-OECD Member States markets: a Trading Advisor may invest in securities of issuers that are not located, or subject to regulation, in an OECD Member State, that are not denominated in the currency of an OECD Member State and that are not traded in an OECD Member State. Such investments involve certain special risks, including risks associated with political and economic uncertainty, adverse governmental policies, restrictions on foreign investment and currency convertibility, currency exchange rate fluctuations, possible lower levels of disclosure and regulation, and uncertainties as to the status, interpretation and application of laws, including, but not limited to, those relating to expropriation, nationalisation and confiscation. Companies not located in an OECD Member State are also not generally subject to uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, and auditing practices and requirements may not be comparable to those applicable to OECD Member State companies. Further, prices of securities not traded in an OECD Member State, especially those securities traded in emerging or developing countries, tend to be less liquid and more volatile. In addition, settlement of trades in some such markets may be much slower and more subject to failure than in an OECD Member State markets. An investment outside the OECD Member State could impose additional costs on the relevant managed account. Brokerage commissions generally are higher outside the OECD Member State and currency conversion costs could be incurred when a Trading Advisor changes investments from one country to another. Increased custodian costs as well as administrative difficulties (such as the applicability of laws of non-OECD Member State jurisdictions to non-OECD Member State custodians in various circumstances, including bankruptcy, ability to recover lost assets, expropriation, nationalisation and record access) may also arise from the maintenance of assets in jurisdictions outside the OECD Member States.

Special risks associated with trading in forward contracts: Alternative Investment Funds may engage in forward trading. Forward contracts, unlike futures contracts, are not traded on exchanges and are not standardised, rather, banks and dealers act as principals in these markets, negotiating each transaction on an individual basis. Forward and "cash" trading is substantially unregulated; there is no limitation on daily price movements and speculative position limits are not applicable. The principals who deal in the forward markets are not required to continue to make markets in the currencies or commodities they trade and these markets can experience periods of illiquidity, sometimes of significant duration. There have been periods during which certain participants in these markets have been unable to quote prices for certain currencies or commodities or have quoted prices with an unusually wide spread between the price at which they were prepared to buy and that at which they were prepared to sell. Disruptions can occur in any market traded by the Alternative Investment Funds due to unusually high trading volume, political intervention or other factors. Market illiquidity or disruption could result in major losses to an Alternative Investment Fund.

Concentration of investments: Although the Alternative Investment Fund's investments will be diversified in accordance with the Regulations, the Trading Advisor in respect of an Alternative Investment Fund may invest such Alternative Investment Fund's assets in a limited number of investments that may be concentrated in a few countries, industries, sectors of an economy or issuers. As a result, although investments by Alternative Investment Funds will be diversified in accordance with the Regulations, the negative impact on the value of the relevant Alternative Investment Fund from adverse movements in a particular country, economy or industry or in the value of the securities of a particular issuer could be considerably greater than if such Alternative Investment Fund were not permitted to concentrate its investments to such an extent.

Turnover: Alternative Investment Funds may invest on the basis of certain short-term market considerations. As a result, the turnover rate within Alternative Investment Funds is expected to be significant, potentially involving substantial brokerage commissions, fees and other transaction costs.

Operational and human error: the success of an Alternative Investment Fund depends in part upon the relevant Trading Advisor's accurate calculation of price relationships, the communication of precise trading instructions and ongoing position evaluations. In addition, a Trading Advisor's strategies may require active and ongoing management of durations and other variables, and dynamic adjustments to an Alternative Investment Fund's positions. There is the possibility that, through human error, oversight or operational weaknesses, mistakes could occur in this process and lead to significant trading losses and an adverse effect on the relevant net asset value.

Reliability of valuations: Alternative Investment Funds are valued pursuant to the Alternative Investment Fund's instrument governing such valuations. As a general matter, the governing instruments of Alternative Investment Funds provide that any securities or investments which are illiquid, not traded on an exchange or in an established market or for which no value can be readily determined, will be assigned such fair value as the respective investment managers may determine in their judgement based on various factors. Such factors include, but are not limited to, aggregate dealer quotes or independent appraisals. Such valuations may not be indicative of what actual fair market value would be in an active, liquid or established market.

Investment strategies: Alternative Investment Funds are a relatively heterogeneous asset class in which the managers may determine their strategies in their sole discretion. As a consequence there is no commonly accepted definition for the strategies employed by Alternative Investment Funds. It can even be impossible to associate certain Alternative Investment Funds with only one specific definition of a strategy. Furthermore there are various levels on which classifications can be made: any general strategy consists of various substrategies which may be very different from each other.

- Futures and Options

There are special risk considerations associated with an Underlying of which the performance is linked to futures, options or other derivative contracts. Depending on the nature of the Underlyings, reference rates or other derivatives to which they relate and on the liquidity in the relevant contract, the prices of such instruments may be highly volatile and hence risky in nature.

- CTA Deposits

A CTA Deposit is a margin investment account held with a bank and managed by a Commodity Trading Advisor registered with the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission or any other relevant regulatory authority, under terms that the Commodity Trading Advisor may engage in trading on a margin (leveraged or geared) basis in a variety of liquid financial instruments including listed and unlisted futures, forwards and options relating to a variety of asset classes including but not limited to interest rates, fixed income securities, commodities, currencies and equities (and may also engage in trading directly in a number of such asset classes). Accordingly the risks relating to an exposure directly or indirectly to CTA Deposits will be a complicated function of the risks associated with the Underlying class, the risks associated with the derivative or other instrument by which such exposure is assumed and the level of gearing.

- Structured Finance Securities

Structured finance securities include, without limitation, asset-backed securities and portfolio credit-linked notes.

Asset-backed securities are securities primarily serviced, or secured, by the cash flows of a pool of receivables (whether present or future) or other Underlyings, either fixed or revolving. Such Underlyings may include, without limitation, residential and commercial mortgages, leases, credit card receivables as well as consumer and corporate debt. Asset-backed securities can be structured in different ways, including “true sale” structures, where the Underlyings are transferred to a special purpose entity, which in turn issues the asset-backed securities, and “synthetic” structures, in which not the assets, but only the credit risks associated with them are transferred through the use of derivatives, to a special purpose entity, which issues the asset backed securities.

Portfolio credit-linked notes are securities in respect of which the payment of principal and interest is linked directly or indirectly to one or more managed or unmanaged portfolios of reference entities and/or assets (reference credits). Upon the occurrence of a credit-related trigger event (credit event) with respect to a reference credit (such as a bankruptcy or a payment default), a loss amount will be calculated (equal to, for example, the difference between the par value of an asset and its recovery value).

Asset-backed securities and portfolio credit-linked notes are usually issued in different tranches. Any losses realised in relation to the Underlyings or, as the case may be, calculated in relation to the reference credits are allocated first to the securities of the most junior tranche, until the principal of such securities is reduced to zero, then to the principal of the next lowest tranche, and so forth.

Accordingly, in the event that (a) in relation to asset-backed securities, the Underlyings do not perform and/or (b) in relation to portfolio credit-linked notes, any one of the specified credit events occurs with respect to one or more of the Underlyings or reference credits, this may affect the value of the relevant securities (which may be zero) and any amounts paid on such securities (which may be zero). This may in turn affect the Net Asset Value per Share. In addition the value of structured finance securities from time to time, and consequently the Net Asset Value per Share, may be adversely affected by macro economic factors such as adverse changes affecting the sector to which the Underlyings or reference credits belong (including industry sectors, services and real estate), economic downturns in the respective countries or globally, as well as circumstances related to the nature of the individual assets (for example, project finance loans are subject to risks connected to the respective project). The implications of such negative effects thus depend heavily on the geographic, sector-specific and type-related concentration of the Underlyings or reference credits. The degree to which any particular asset-backed security or portfolio credit linked note is affected by such events will depend on the tranche to which such security relates; junior tranches, even having received investment grade rating, can therefore be subject to substantial risks.

Exposure to structured finance securities may entail a higher liquidity risk than exposure to sovereign or corporate bonds. In the absence of a liquid market for the respective structured finance securities, they may only be traded at a discount from face value and not at the fair value, which may in turn affect the Net Asset Value per Share.

- Real Estate

There are special risk considerations associated with an Underlying of which the performance is linked to securities of companies principally engaged in the real estate industry. These include: the cyclical nature of real estate values, risks related to general and local economic conditions, overbuilding and increased competition, increases in property taxes and operating expenses, demographic trends and variations in rental income, changes in zoning laws, casualty or condemnation losses, environmental risks, regulatory limitations on rents, changes in neighbourhood values, related party risks, changes in the appeal of properties to tenants, increases in interest rates and other real estate capital market influences. Generally, increases in interest rates will increase the costs of obtaining financing, which could directly and indirectly decrease the value of the Underlying and thus the Fund's investments.

- Commodities

Prices of commodities are influenced by, among other things, various macro economic factors such as changing supply and demand relationships, weather conditions and other natural phenomena, agricultural, trade, fiscal, monetary, and exchange control programmes and policies of governments (including government intervention in certain markets) and other unforeseeable events.

The Funds will only be undertaking exposure to commodities through eligible commodity indices.

- Emerging Market Assets

Exposure to emerging markets assets generally entails greater risks than exposure to well-developed markets, including potentially significant legal economic and political risks.

Emerging markets are by definition “in transformation” and are therefore exposed to the risk of swift political change and economic downturn. In recent years, many emerging market countries have undergone significant political, economic and social change. In many cases, political concerns have resulted in significant economic and social tensions and in some cases both political and economic instability has occurred. Political or economic instability may have a negative impact on the prices of emerging market exchange rates, securities or other assets.

The prices of emerging market exchange rates, securities or other assets are often highly volatile. Movements in such prices are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing market supply and demand, external market forces (particularly in relation to major trading partners), trade, fiscal, monetary programmes, policies of governments, and international political and economic events and policies.

In emerging markets, the development of securities markets usually is at an early stage. This could lead to risks and practises (such as increased volatility) that are not common in more developed securities markets, which may negatively affect the value of securities listed on the exchanges of such countries. In addition, markets of emerging market countries are often characterised by illiquidity in the form of a low turnover of some or all of the listed securities.

It is important to note that, during times of global economic slowdown, emerging market exchange rates, securities and other assets are more likely than other forms of investment with lower risks to be sold during any “flight to quality”, and their value may decrease accordingly.

Risks associated with the Underlying

There is no assurance that the Underlying will continue to be calculated and published on the basis described in the relevant Supplement or that it will not be amended significantly. Any change to the Underlying may adversely affect the value of the Shares. The past performance of an Underlying is not necessarily a guide to its future performance.

Where the Underlying consists of an Index it will not be actively managed and the selection of the component indices, assets or securities will be made in accordance with the relevant Index composition rules and eligibility criteria and not by reference to any performance criteria or performance outlook. Accordingly, the composition of the Index is not designed to follow recommendations or research reports issued by the Index Sponsor, its affiliates or any other person. No Index Sponsor has any obligation to take the needs of the Company or the investors into consideration in determining, composing or calculating any Underlying.

Specific risks relating to Funds whose performance is linked to an Underlying

The following factors may adversely affect the value of the Shares of such Funds:

- the Fund must pay various expenses, such as fees, costs, taxes, commissions, charges and dividends (if applicable);
- the Company must comply with regulatory constraints, such as the Investment Restrictions, that may lead to a restructuring of a Fund's investments;
- the Fund may not always continuously be exposed to the Underlying;
- the Company may purchase Debt Securities the value of which will increase or decrease over time by reference to a variety of factors including, amongst others, corporate actions, macro economic factors and speculation;
- the Company will enter into Derivative Contracts with a maturity date which may be different from the Scheduled Maturity Date of the relevant Shares. There can be no assurance that any new Derivative Contracts entered into will have terms similar to those previously entered into; and
- the existence of a cash position held by the Fund.

Use of Derivatives

As a Fund whose performance is linked to an Underlying will often be invested in Funded Swaps or securities which will differ from the Underlying, in which case derivative techniques will be used to link the value of the Shares to the performance of the Underlying. While the prudent use of such derivatives can be beneficial, derivatives also involve risks different from, and, in certain cases, greater than, the risks presented by more traditional investments. The following is a general discussion of important risk factors and issues concerning the use of derivatives that investors should understand before investing in Shares of a Fund.

Market Risk

This is a general risk that applies to all investments meaning that the value of a particular derivative may change in a way which may be detrimental to a Fund's interests.

Control and Monitoring

Derivative products are highly specialised instruments that require investment techniques and risk analysis different from those associated with equity and fixed income securities. The use of derivative techniques requires an understanding not only of the Underlying but also of the derivative itself, without the benefit of observing the performance of the derivative under all possible market conditions. In particular, the use and complexity of derivatives require the maintenance of adequate controls to monitor the transactions entered into, the ability to assess the risk that a derivative adds to a Fund and the ability to forecast the relative price, interest rate or currency rate movements correctly.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk exists when a particular instrument is difficult to purchase or sell. If a derivative transaction is particularly large or if the relevant market is illiquid (as is the case with many privately negotiated derivatives), it may not be possible to initiate a transaction or liquidate a position at an advantageous price, or at all.

Counterparty Risk

The Company on behalf of a Fund may enter into transactions in over-the-counter markets, which will expose the Fund to the credit of its counterparties and their ability to satisfy the terms of such contracts. For example, the Company on behalf of the Fund may enter into repurchase agreements, forward contracts, options and swap arrangements or other derivative techniques, each of which expose the Fund to the risk that the counterparty may default on its obligations to perform under the relevant contract. In the event of a bankruptcy or insolvency of a counterparty, the Fund could experience delays in liquidating the position and significant losses, including declines in the value of its investment during the period in which the Company seeks to enforce its rights, inability to realise any gains on its investment during such period and fees and expenses incurred in enforcing its rights. There is also a possibility that the above agreements and derivative techniques are terminated due, for instance, to bankruptcy, supervening illegality or change in the tax or accounting laws relative to those at the time the agreement was originated. In such circumstances, investors may be unable to cover any losses incurred. Derivative Contracts such as swap contracts entered into by the Company on behalf of a Fund (through the Investment Manager) involve credit risk that could result in a loss of the Fund's entire investment as the Fund may be fully exposed to the credit worthiness of a single Approved Counterparty where such an exposure will be collateralised.

Other Risks

Other risks in using derivatives include the risk of differing valuations of derivatives arising out of different permitted valuation methods and the inability of derivatives to correlate perfectly with underlying securities, rates and indices. Many derivatives, in particular over-the-counter derivatives, are complex and often valued subjectively and the valuation can only be provided by a limited number of market professionals which often are acting as counterparties to the transaction to be valued. Inaccurate valuations can result in increased cash payment requirements to counterparties or a loss of value to a Fund. Derivatives do not always perfectly or even highly correlate or replicate the value of the securities, rates or indices they are designed to replicate. Consequently, a Fund's use of derivative techniques may not always be an effective means of, and sometimes could be counterproductive to, following such Fund's investment objective.

Specific Risks Relating to Funds Replicating the Performance of an Underlying

A Fund replicating the performance of the Underlying is not expected to replicate its relevant Underlying with the same degree of accuracy as would an investment vehicle that is entirely invested in every Underlying Security. However, it is intended that the difference between the performance of the Shares of the Fund (before the Fund's fees, administration, trading, dealing and bid/offer expenses) and the performance of the Underlying will not be substantial. Investors should note that exceptional circumstances, such as, but not limited to, disruptive market conditions or extremely volatile markets, may arise which cause a Fund's replicating accuracy to be substantially different from the performance of the Underlying. Also, there can be a delay between the recomposition occurring within the Underlying and the investments made by the Fund. Due to various constraints, the Fund may require more time to recompose its portfolio which can substantially affect the Fund's degree of replicating accuracy which can be different from the Underlying. Additionally, for certain Funds, due to the composition of each of their Underlyings, it may not be practicably possible, for example because of the Investment Restrictions, to achieve such a level of replicating accuracy.

The following factors may adversely affect the replicating by a Fund of its Underlying:

- the Fund must pay various fees and expenses, while the Underlying does not reflect any expenses;
- in certain of the Funds the securities held by those Funds may not be identical to the Underlying Securities but will be chosen to give similar performance; their investment performance is likely to differ from that of the Underlying Securities;

- a Fund must comply with regulatory constraints, such as the Investment Restrictions, that do not affect the calculation of a Fund's corresponding Underlying;
- the existence of uninvested assets in the Funds (including cash and deferred fees and expenses); and
- that a Fund may be subject to a different foreign withholding tax rate than that assumed by its Index.

Although the Investment Manager will regularly monitor the replicating accuracy of the relevant Fund, there can be no assurance as to the accuracy with which any Fund will replicate the performance of its Underlying.

Certain Hedging Considerations

Investors intending to purchase the Shares for the purpose of hedging their exposure to the Underlying should be aware of the risks of utilising the Shares in such manner. No assurance is or can be given that the value of the Shares will correlate with movements in the value of the Underlying. This risk is especially prevalent if the Fund's performance is linked to an Underlying, as the Fund will generally be investing in the Fund Assets and not in the Underlying. Furthermore, it may not be possible to liquidate the Shares at a price which directly reflects the value of the Underlying. Therefore, it is possible that investors could suffer substantial losses in the Shares notwithstanding losses suffered with respect to direct investments in or direct exposure to the Underlying. Investors in the Shares should be aware that hedging transactions, in order to limit the risks associated with the Shares, might not be successful.

Specific Restrictions in Connection with the Shares

Investors should note that there may be restrictions in connection with the subscription, holding and repurchase of and trading in the Shares. Such restrictions may have the effect of preventing the investor from freely subscribing, holding, trading and/or repurchasing the Shares. In addition to the features described below, such restrictions may also be caused by specific requirements such as the Minimum Initial Investment Amount, the Minimum Additional Investment Amount, the Minimum Repurchase Amount and the Minimum Shareholding.

Maximum Repurchase Amount

The Company will have the option to limit the number of Shares of any Fund repurchased on any Dealing Day to 10% of the total Net Asset Value of that Fund on that Dealing Day and, in conjunction with such limitation, to pro rata limit the number of Shares repurchased by any Shareholder on such Dealing Day so that all Shareholders wishing to have Shares of that Fund repurchased on that Dealing Day realise the same proportion of such Shares. In the event the Company elects to limit the number of Shares repurchased on such date to 5% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund, a Shareholder may not be able to repurchase on such Dealing Day all the Shares that it desires to repurchase. Investors should review this Prospectus and the relevant Supplement to ascertain whether and how such provisions apply.

Repurchase Notice and Certifications

If the Shares are subject to provisions concerning delivery of a repurchase notice, as mentioned under "Share Dealings - Repurchase of Shares" of this Prospectus and/or in the relevant Supplement, and such notice is received by the Administrator after the Dealing Deadline, it will not be deemed to be duly delivered until the next following Dealing Day. Such delay may increase or decrease the Repurchase Price from what it would have been but for such late delivery of the repurchase notice. The failure to deliver any repurchase documentation required could result in the loss or inability to receive amounts or deliveries otherwise due under the Shares. Investors should review this Prospectus and the relevant Supplement to ascertain whether and how such provisions apply to the Shares.

Redemptions of Shares in any Fund will, unless cash resources are otherwise available to the Fund at the relevant time, be funded through sale of the underlying assets of the Fund and may result in erosion of capital. The realisation of the underlying assets depends on factors affecting the relevant market at the relevant time as well as on several economic factors, all of which can significantly impinge on the targeted price of sale and/or on the time frame set for the sale. Accordingly, whilst it is the intended policy to ensure regular liquidity as may be necessary to meet redemption requests in a timely fashion in accordance with the Licence Conditions, there may be factors which could affect such liquidity and delay realisation of the assets until such time when it would be most appropriate to realise the same in the interest of such Fund and all investors in such Fund. As a consequence, redemptions in such Fund may be subject to deferrals, as further detailed under the part “Share Dealings” and/or under the respective Offering Supplement of the relevant Fund.

Furthermore, substantial redemption requests could require a Fund to liquidate its positions more rapidly than otherwise desired in order to obtain the cash necessary to fund the redemptions. Illiquidity in certain markets could make it difficult to liquidate positions on favourable terms, thereby resulting in potential losses and a decrease in the assets. In these circumstances, the redeeming Shareholder may incur a loss upon redemption of its Shares and non-redeeming Shareholders in the relevant Fund will bear a disproportionate risk of any consequent decline in the value of the Fund’s assets subsequent to the redemptions. Moreover, under such circumstances, it may be more difficult for the Fund to generate the same level of profits operating on a smaller capital base and the Investment Manager may find it difficult to adjust its asset allocation and trading strategies to the suddenly reduced amounts of assets under management.

As at the date of this Prospectus, there is no market for the Shares in any Fund and no secondary market is expected to develop to provide Investors in such Fund with liquidity of investment except through redemption or by way of transfer of the Shares by the investor to a willing buyer identified by the investor, in both cases subject to the relevant restrictions dealing with redemptions and transfers as detailed in this Prospectus, the Supplement of the relevant Fund and the Articles. No assurance can be given that active secondary trading will develop in respect of any Fund or that Shares in any Fund will trade at a premium or discount to their NAV.

Between the relevant day as of which a redemption of Shares in a is processed and accepted (the relevant ‘Redemption Day’) and the date on which any redemption proceeds are paid to the Shareholder redeeming his Shares in the Fund, a redeeming Shareholder will be a creditor of the Fund in which it invested and will be subject to the same risks as any other creditor of the Fund, including the possibility that if the Fund experiences losses after a Redemption Day, the Fund may have insufficient assets to pay all or even a portion of the redemption proceeds due to the redeeming Shareholder.

Furthermore, in terms of this Offering Memorandum and the Articles, the Directors or the relevant Service Provider of the relevant Fund delegated with this function will have the right to delay payment of redemption proceeds to Shareholders whose Investor Shares have been redeemed prior to a suspension of the calculation of the NAV until after the suspension is lifted (in circumstances when the Directors or such Service Provider believe that to make such payment during the suspension period would materially and adversely affect or prejudice the interest of continuing Investors) as well as in other circumstances detailed in this Offering Memorandum and the Articles. The aforesaid risks of a redeeming Shareholder will in such circumstances extend over the period of such payment deferral.

Market Disruption Events & Settlement Disruption Events

A determination of a market disruption event or a settlement disruption event in connection with any Fund Assets or Underlying (as may be further described in any Supplement) may have an effect on the value of the Shares and, may delay the occurrence of a Scheduled Maturity Date and/or may delay settlement in respect of the Fund Asset, Underlying and/or the Shares. Recent developments in the global financial markets have illustrated that the current environment is one of extraordinary and possibly unprecedented uncertainty and instability for all market participants. Global financial markets and their participants and other financial institutions that a Fund may retain, may have been negatively affected by such market turmoil. It is unclear what resulting legal, regulatory, reputational and other unforeseen risks market participants will become subject to in the future. The impact of such risks on the markets in which any Fund will or may operate cannot be determined with precision but could adversely affect the business.

Dependence on the Directors and the Investment Manager

All decisions with respect to the investment of each Fund's assets will be made by the Investment Manager, a function which, in terms of the Investment Management Agreement and subject to the rules on delegation applicable to the Investment Manager under the applicable laws, may be delegated by the Investment Manager to, or in respect of which the Investment Manager can appoint and procure assistance and advice from, sub-managers and advisors, as explained in more detail in this Prospectus and the relevant Supplement for each Fund. As a result, the success of a Fund depends largely upon the investment management abilities of the Investment Manager and these sub-managers and advisors (if any).

The Directors will make all decisions regarding the general management of the Company and each Fund.

Without prejudice to the voting and other rights of Shareholders in terms of the Articles, the terms of issue of the Shares and this Prospectus, investors have no right or power to take part in the management of the Company or the Fund in which they invest. Investors must rely on the judgment and abilities of the Investment Manager and such sub-managers and advisors (if any) and of the Directors in exercising these responsibilities.

The Investment Manager and the said sub-managers and advisors, as applicable, and each of their respective principals, affiliates, officers, employees and agents will not be required to devote substantially all their time to the relevant Fund's business. The Investment Manager and sub-managers and advisors (if any) are in turn dependent on the services of a limited number of employees and other persons, and if the services of such key persons were to become unavailable, this could adversely affect the performance of the relevant Fund.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

The Directors and other officers of the Company, the Investment Manager, the Custodian, the Administrator, the Index Sponsor, the Distributor, the Sub-Distributors, any Shareholder, any market maker which has been appointed to offer prices for the Shares on any exchange on which the Classes to which the Shares belong are listed (for the purposes hereof, a Market Maker) or any other Service Provider to the Company or any Fund, and any of their respective officers, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, associates, principals, agents or delegates (for the purposes hereof, Connected Persons and each a Connected Person) may:

1. contract or enter into any financial, banking or other transactions or arrangements with one another or with the Company including, without limitation, investment by the Company in securities or investment by any Connected Persons in any company or body any of whose investments form part of the assets of the Company or be interested in any such contracts or transactions;
2. invest in and deal with Shares, securities, assets or any property of the kind included in the property of the Company for their respective individual accounts or for the account of a third party; and
3. deal as agent or principal in the sale or purchase of securities and other investments to or from the Company through or with any Connected Person.

Any assets of the Funds in the form of cash or securities may be deposited with any Connected Person. Any assets of the Company in the form of cash may be invested in certificates of deposit or banking investments issued by any Connected Person. Banking or similar transactions may also be undertaken with or through a Connected Person.

In addition, in many cases the Approved Counterparty may be required to provide valuations of Derivative Contracts. These valuations may form the basis upon which the value of certain assets of the Funds is calculated.

FCS Asset Management Ltd. may market and distribute the Funds and may appoint one of its Affiliates as the Distributor and may also act as the Index Sponsor all in accordance with the relevant agreements which are in place. The Directors acknowledge that, by virtue of the functions which FCS Asset Management Ltd. and/or its Affiliate will perform in connection with the Company or any of the Funds, potential conflicts of interest are likely to arise. In such circumstances, each of FCS Asset Management and the Affiliate has undertaken to use its reasonable endeavours to resolve any such conflicts of interest fairly (having regard to its respective obligations and duties) and to ensure that they shall act in the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders. The Directors believe that FCS Asset Management Ltd. and/or the Affiliate are suitable and competent to perform the said functions.

Conflicts may also arise as a result of the Directors being Directors of other companies in which the Company may invest.

Generally there may be conflicts of interests between the interests of the Company and the interests of the Directors to generate fees, commissions and other revenues.

In the event that such conflicts of interest arises, the Directors will endeavour to ensure that there is resolved in the best interest of the Company.

Taxation

Investors in the Shares should be aware that they may be subject to income tax, withholding tax, capital gains tax, wealth tax, stamp taxes or any other kind of tax on distributions or deemed distributions of the Fund, capital gains in respect of transactions in Shares, whether or not realised, income received or accrued or deemed received from Shares etc., in accordance with the applicable laws.

Investors should be aware of the fact that they might have to pay taxes on income or deemed income received by or accrued within a Fund. Taxes might be calculated based on income received and/or deemed to be received and/or accrued in the Fund in relation to the Fund Assets, whereas the performance of the Fund, and subsequently the return investors receive after redemption of the Shares, might partially or fully depend on the performance of the Underlying. This can have the effect that the investor has to pay taxes for income or/and a performance which he does not, or does not fully, receive.

Investors who are in any doubt as to their tax position should consult their own independent tax advisors. In addition, investors should be aware that tax regulations and their application or interpretation by the relevant taxation authorities change from time to time. Accordingly, it is not possible to predict the precise tax treatment, which will apply at any given time.

No assurance can be given that the manner in which any Fund will be managed and operated, or that the composition of its portfolio investments, will be tax efficient for any particular investor or group of investors in such Fund. A Fund's books and records could be audited by the tax authorities of countries where the Fund will be managed and operated, or where a portion of its investments are made, or where a particular Shareholder or group of Shareholders reside. Any such audits could subject the Fund to tax, interest and penalties, as well as incremental accounting and legal expenses, which will have a negative impact on the NAV of such Fund and of Shares therein. The Company does not intend to provide investors in any Fund with information regarding the ownership percentage of its Shares in such Fund held by residents of any country.

The tax consequences to the Company and any Fund and investors in any Fund, the ability of any Fund as a foreign investor to invest in the markets and to repatriate its assets, including any income and profit earned on those assets and other operations of such Fund are based on existing laws and regulations and are subject to change through legislative, judicial, administrative or regulatory action in the various jurisdictions in which such Fund or its service providers, agents and advisors invest or operate. There can be no guarantee that income tax and other fiscal legislation and laws or regulations governing the Company's or any Fund's operations and investments will not be changed in a manner that may adversely affect such Fund and/or its Investors. The effect of such changes on the Company and any Fund, while impossible to predict, could be substantial and adverse.

Change of Law

The Company and the Investment Manager must comply with regulatory constraints, such as a change in the laws affecting the Investment Restrictions, which might require a change in the investment policy and objectives followed by a Fund.

Political Factors

The performance of the Shares or the possibility to purchase, sell, or repurchase may be affected by changes in general economic conditions and uncertainties such as political developments, changes in government policies, the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of capital and changes in regulatory requirements.

Liability for Fees and Expenses

The fees and expenses relating to a Fund will be paid by the Company out of the assets of the relevant Fund as set out in the Articles, this Prospectus and the relevant Supplement. However, to the extent that:

- (a) the arrangements, for funding the payment by the Company of the fees and expenses do not generate the necessary funds to discharge all of the Company's liabilities in respect of the Fund; or
- (b) the Company incurs any fees, expenses or other liabilities which are not budgeted for by the Company and accordingly fall outside the scope of the arrangements referred to in (a) above, the Company will pay such fees, expenses or liabilities from the Funds' assets. The Company's liability in respect of such amounts will be borne by the relevant Fund as more fully described under "Cross Liability between Classes" below.

Cross Liability between Classes

A Fund may be constituted by two or more Classes of Shares in respect of which a separate class NAV is calculated and/or a separate attribution of assets and liabilities of the Fund is made, on the basis of such criteria and for such purposes (internal accounting purposes, to determine the rights of Shareholders of each Class inter se and other purposes) as set out in respective Supplement of such Fund, this Prospectus and/or of the Articles and/or to the terms of issue of the relevant Class/es of Shares of such Fund. Although the assets and liabilities of each Fund as a whole patrimony will be "ring-fenced" from those of other Funds as mentioned above, investors should be aware of the risk that the assets attributed to each Class of Shares in a Fund may be applied to meet any claims by creditors of obligations and liabilities attributed to the other Class/es of Shares in such Fund in circumstances in which the liabilities attributed to the affected Class exceed the assets attributed to it. Thus, the assets attributed to a solvent Class of a Fund may be at risk with respect to, and may be used to satisfy the liabilities attributed to, an insolvent Class of the same Fund.

Allocation of shortfalls among Classes of a Fund

The right of holders of any Class of Shares to participate in the assets of the Company is limited to the assets (if any) of the relevant Fund and all the assets of a Fund will be available to meet all of the liabilities of the Fund, regardless of the different amounts stated to be payable on the separate Classes (as set out in the relevant Supplement).

For example, if (i) on a winding-up of the Fund or (ii) as at the Scheduled Maturity Date (if any), the the assets of the relevant Fund (after payment of all fees, expenses and other liabilities which are to be borne by such Fund) are insufficient to pay the full Repurchase Proceeds payable in respect of all Classes of Shares of the relevant Fund, the remaining net assets of the Fund will be distributed amongst the holders of Investor Shares in such Fund, in proportion to their respective entitlements, namely it shall distribute the net assets attributable to each class of Investor Shares in such Fund 'pro rata' to the number of Investor Shares of such class held by Investors in that Fund (unless otherwise stated in the respective terms of issue). The relevant Shareholders will have no further right of payment in respect of their Shares or any claim against any other Fund or any other assets of the Company.

Consequences of winding-up proceedings

If the Company or a Fund fails for any reason to meet its obligations or liabilities, or is unable to pay its debts, a creditor may be entitled to make an application for the winding-up of the Company or such Fund, as the case may be. The commencement of such proceedings may entitle creditors (including Approved Counterparties) to terminate contracts with the Company (in respect of the relevant Fund(s)) and claim damages for any loss arising from such early termination. The commencement of such proceedings may result in the Company or the Fund being dissolved at a time and its assets (in the case of the Company, including the assets of all Funds) being realised and applied to pay the fees and expenses of the appointed liquidator or other insolvency officer, then in satisfaction of debts preferred by law and then in payment of the Company's or the Fund's liabilities, before any surplus is distributed to the shareholders of the Company or the Fund. In the event of proceedings being commenced, the Company or Fund may not be able to pay, in full or at all, the amounts anticipated by the Supplement in respect of any Class or Funds, or any Classes within the Fund concerned.

Nominee Arrangements

Where the Distributor and/or a nominee service provider is used by an investor to invest in the Shares of any Class or such investor holds interests in Shares of any Class through accounts with a Clearing System (such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg), such investor will only receive payments in respect of Repurchase Proceeds and/or any dividends attributable to the Shares on the basis of the arrangements entered into by the investor with the Distributor, nominee service provider or Clearing System, as the case may be. Furthermore, any such investor will not appear on the Register of the Company, will have no direct right of recourse against the Company and must look exclusively to the Distributor, nominee service provider or Clearing System for all payments attributable to the relevant Shares. The Company and the Directors will recognise as Shareholders only those persons who are at any time shown on the Register for the purposes of: (i) the payment of dividends and other payments due to be made to Shareholders (as applicable); (ii) the circulation of documents to Shareholders; (iii) the attendance and voting by Shareholders at any meetings of Shareholders; and (iv) all other rights of Shareholders attributable to the Shares. None of the Company, the Directors, the Investment Manager, the Administrator, the Custodian or any other person will be responsible for the acts or omissions of the Distributor, nominee service provider or Clearing System, nor make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the services provided by the Distributor, nominee service provider or Clearing System.

Calculation of the Net Asset Value

The NAV of a Fund and the NAV per Share in such Fund is not audited (except at fiscal year-end) and based primarily upon the value of the Fund's underlying investments. In valuing those investments, reliance will in some cases need to be primarily made on non audited financial information procured from the relevant issuers, counterparties, their agents, market makers or other sources. If the information used to determine the NAV of any of the underlying investments is incomplete, inaccurate, or if such NAV does not adequately reflect the value of the underlying investments, the NAV of the Fund and NAV per Share in such Fund may be adversely affected. Adjustments to the NAV of the Fund (where applicable) will generally be made to the then current NAV, not by adjusting the NAVs previously reported (without prejudice to the powers of the Directors and the relevant provisions of this Prospectus, the Supplement of the relevant Fund and the Articles.

Investors are cautioned that each of the Funds may be subject to particular risk factors. Reference is made to the part titled “Risk Factors” in the respective Supplement for each Fund which identifies the main potential risks associated with investing in the respective Fund.

The Depositary is liable to the Company, in respect of the Fund, and to the shareholders of the Fund for the loss of a financial instrument held in custody, by the Depositary or the relevant delegate. In the case of such a loss of a financial instrument held in custody, the Depositary will return a financial instrument of identical type or the corresponding amount to the Company, in respect of the Fund, without undue delay. The Depositary is not liable if it can prove that the loss has arisen as a result of an external event beyond its reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all reasonable efforts to the contrary.

Furthermore, the Depositary is liable to the Company, in respect of the Fund, and to the shareholders of the Fund for losses (other than the loss of a financial instrument as referred to above), suffered by them as a result of the Depositary's negligent or intentional failure to properly fulfil its obligations pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Investment Services Act (Chapter 370 of the Laws of Malta), the Investment Services Act (Custodians of Collective Investment Schemes) Regulations (Legal Notice 114 of 2016) and the Investment Services Rules for Investment Services Providers issued thereunder, as applicable to the Depositary.

The Depositary's liability as aforesaid will not be affected the delegation of its safekeeping functions.

If any shareholder of the Fund intends to invoke the liability of the Depositary it must notify the Company and the Investment Manager of its intention to invoke the liability of the Depositary, and the Company or the Investment Manager will be required to ensure that the exercise of any action or claim by one or more shareholders does not lead to unequal treatment of the other shareholders.

The Depositary Agreement contains provisions whereby the Company agrees to indemnify the Depositary (out of the assets of the relevant Fund) against any actions, proceedings, claims, loss or damages, costs, demands and expenses (including legal and professional expenses) which may be brought against, suffered or incurred by the Depositary in relation to the Depositary's performance of its services, duties or functions, and the insolvency, acts or omissions of the Company[, Investment Manager,] the Administrator or any other service provider, or any delegate or third party appointed by the Company or the Investment Manager; except where and to the extent that the Depositary is liable for the same in terms of the Depositary Agreement.

The Depositary Agreement may be terminated by the Depositary or by Company and the AIFM, by giving not less than six (6) months' written notice, and on certain other grounds set out in the Depositary Agreement.

The Depositary does not provide any services to the Fund other than those described above. In particular, it is not responsible for the valuation of the assets of the Fund, the calculation of the Net Asset Value, or the marketing or distribution of the Fund shares.

The Depositary is not responsible for the contents of the Prospectus or any Offering Supplement, nor for the approval thereof.

Distributor

The Company has appointed FCS ASSET MANAGEMENT LIMITED as distributor of the Shares of the Company.

Brokerage

The Company (for the Fund) may engage in open brokerage relationships with various entities worldwide, as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable from time to time for various specific trading and investment activities. The appointment and/or replacement of such entities (to the extent that they will not perform custodial / safe-keeping functions), shall not be subject to the prior written consent of the MFSA. These entities will be paid for their brokerage services, out of the assets of the Fund, their respective fees and commissions as agreed with the Company and as applicable at the relevant time.

Conflicts of Interest

Subject to the provisions of this section, each Connected Person may contract or enter into any financial, banking or other transaction with one another or with the Company. This includes, without limitation, investment by the Company (in respect of a Fund) in securities of any Connected Person or investment by any Connected Persons in any company or bodies in which the Company invests in respect of a Fund, or be interested in any such contract or transactions. In addition, any Connected Person may invest in and deal in Shares relating to any Fund or any property of the kind included in the property of any Fund for their respective individual accounts or for the account of someone else.

Any cash of the Company may be deposited, subject to the provisions of the License Conditions, with any Connected Person or invested in certificates of deposit or banking instruments issued by any Connected Person. Banking and similar transactions may also be undertaken with or through a Connected Person.

Subject to their duties at law and under any contract with the Company, a Connected Person may also deal as agent or principal in the sale or purchase of securities and other investments (including foreign exchange and securities lending transactions) to or from the relevant Fund. There will be no obligation on the part of any Connected Person to account to the relevant Fund or to Shareholders of that Fund for any benefits so arising, and any such benefits may be retained by the relevant party, provided that such transactions are carried out as if effected on normal commercial terms negotiated at arm's length, are consistent with the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders of that Fund and:

- (i) a certified valuation of such transaction by a person approved by the Directors as independent and competent has been obtained; or
- (ii) such transaction has been executed on best terms reasonably available on an organised investment exchange under its rules; or
- (iii) where (i) and (ii) are not reasonably practicable, such transaction has been executed on terms which the Directors are satisfied conform with the principle that such transactions be carried out as if effected on normal commercial terms negotiated at arm's length.

The Connected Persons are not required to devote substantially all their time to the Company's or the relevant Fund's business. Therefore, Connected Persons may also have conflicts of interests in allocating management time, services and functions among the various entities to which they provide services.

The Investment Manager, Custodian and other Service Providers of any Fund, and sub-managers, sub-custodians, brokers, advisers or agents appointed by them or assisting them (if any) and other respective Connected Persons will remain free to trade for accounts which are not the accounts of the relevant Fund (whether their own or of other customers) and to utilise investment strategies and formulae in trading for such accounts which are the same or different from the ones they will utilise in making investment decisions for the relevant Fund. In particular, these may be involved in advising or managing or servicing other investment funds or other clients which have similar or overlapping investment objectives to or with the relevant Fund and such clients could thus compete for the same investments. Whilst available investments or opportunities are generally allocated to each client in a manner believed to be equitable, some of those allocation procedures may adversely affect the price paid or received for investments or the size of positions obtained or disposed of. They may also take positions different than or opposite to those of the relevant Fund and each may trade ahead of the relevant Fund. The records of any such trading will not be available for inspection by the Shareholders the relevant Fund except to the extent required by law. Furthermore, because the said persons and other respective Connected Persons may be willing to accept more risk than they believe is acceptable for clients, and because they may test new investment strategies and methodologies, positions in their respective proprietary accounts may be inconsistent or opposite to those of clients and, as a result, the performance of their respective own accounts may differ from the performance of client accounts.

Certain distributors, placement agents and other financial intermediaries, client introducers and referrers appointed in respect of a Fund may be paid a one-off and/or ongoing compensation related to Shareholders introduced to the Fund by them or through their services or assistance. Accordingly, such financial intermediaries, client introducers and referrers will have a conflict of interest in advising investors whether to purchase or redeem Shares.

Furthermore, the various Service Providers to each Fund, and their respective Connected Parties may sell or be interested in the sale of Shares and receive a portion of each, or all, of the brokerage commissions, transaction charges, advisory fees or management fees paid by the relevant Fund as attributable to such sale of Shares. Thus, to the extent of such purchases, such Service Providers may have a conflict between the interests of Shareholders in limiting expenses of the relevant Fund and their own interest in receiving such fees and/or commissions.

In such circumstances where conflicts of interest may arise, the persons who have contracted with or otherwise owe duties to the Company or the Funds will have appropriate regard to their respective obligations at law or under the agreements appointing them to act in the best interests of the Company or the relevant Fund/s (as the case may be), so far as practicable having regard to their obligations to other clients, when potential conflicts of interests may arise.

Should a conflict of interests arise, the Directors will endeavour to ensure that it is resolved fairly and equitably and that the Company and the relevant Fund/s and their respective Shareholders shall not be disadvantaged.

An Investment Manager may, in the course of its business, have potential conflicts of interest with the Company in circumstances other than those referred to above. The Investment Manager will, however, have regard in such event to its obligations under the relevant Investment Management Agreement and applicable law and regulation, and, in particular, to its obligations to act in the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders, having regard to its obligations to other clients when undertaking any investments where conflicts of interest may arise and will ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly as between the Company, the relevant Funds and other clients. The Investment Manager will ensure that investment opportunities are allocated on a fair and equitable basis between the Company and its other clients. In the event that a conflict of interest does arise the directors of the Investment Manager will endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly.

Furthermore, where the organisational or administrative arrangements made by the Investment Manager for the management of conflicts of interest are not sufficient to ensure, with reasonable confidence, that risks of damage to the interests of the Company or the Shareholders of any of the Funds will be prevented, it shall report such situation to the Shareholders of the relevant Fund/s in accordance with the applicable laws and regulation to which the Investment Manager is subject.

The Investment Manager is required to develop adequate and effective strategies for determining when and how voting rights attached to instruments held in portfolios it manages are to be exercised, to the exclusive benefit of the Company and the Fund concerned. A summary description of such strategies is available to investors in each Fund's Supplement. Details of the actions taken on the basis of the said strategies will also be made available by the Investment Manager to Shareholders free of charge upon request.

The performance fee arrangements which may be made between a Company and the Investment Manager in respect of a Fund (where applicable and as disclosed in the Supplement for the Fund) may create an incentive for the Investment Manager to make investment decisions that are more speculative or subject to a greater risk of loss than would be the case if no such arrangement existed.

Where a Director of the Company has an interest in any contract, transaction, arrangement or other matter with or involving the Company or any Fund or in which the latter may be interested, the procedure as required by law, the Articles and the MFSA rules must be followed. The Articles prescribe essentially that:

- (a) the nature and extent of a Director's interest which is or could be in conflict with the interests of the Company must be declared or notified by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the issue in relation to which the Director has such interest first arises, or if the Director was not at the date of that meeting so interested in the issue, at the next meeting of the Directors held after he becomes so interested, and a record of such declaration or notice shall be entered into the minute book of Directors' meetings;
- (b) unless otherwise agreed to by the other Directors, a Director will avoid entering into discussions in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested and will withdraw from the meeting while the matter in which he has an interest is being discussed;
- (c) the interested Director should not vote at a Board meeting in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested, and if he shall do so, his vote shall not be counted in the quorum present at the meeting; and
- (d) the minutes of the meeting should accurately record the sequence of such events.

Furthermore, subject to their fiduciary and other duties at law and under the Articles and under any contract appointing them, the Directors shall not, by reason of and notwithstanding their office, be disqualified from contracting and transacting with or from being interested in any contract, transaction, arrangement or other matter with or involving the Company or any Fund or in which the latter may be interested, nor shall they be accountable to the Company or any Fund for any profit, benefit or other advantage derived therefrom.

Liability and Indemnification

In terms of the MFSA Rules, the Company will be liable to Shareholders for any loss or prejudice suffered by them resulting from the Company's fraud, wilful default or gross negligence, including the unjustifiable failure to perform in whole or in part the Company's obligations. Any liability so incurred by the Company shall be attributed to the relevant Fund/s in accordance with the rules set out in this Prospectus and the Articles.

The Company (including any of its Directors, officers, agents and delegates) will not be liable for any loss or prejudice suffered by any Shareholder or any other person, otherwise than as stated in the preceding paragraph.

Neither the Directors or other officers of the Company nor any Service Provider and respective Connected Persons will be liable to the Company or to any Fund or to any Shareholder for any act or omission performed or omitted to be performed honestly and in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority granted to them, and in accordance with the terms of the Articles and/or the respective agreements appointing them, except as otherwise described herein. Moreover, the respective terms of appointment or agreement appointing any of the above-mentioned persons may limit their liability to a specified maximum amount and may contain other limitations of liability, including generally the restriction of liability solely to acts or omissions resulting from fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of such person, which means that such agreements may 'inter alia' exclude or limit liability for acts or omissions resulting from ordinary negligence (as opposed to gross negligence).

Subject to their fiduciary and other duties at law and under the respective agreements appointing them, neither the Directors or officers of the Company, their respective accountants, auditors and legal advisors, the various Service Providers to each Fund, the Distributors, financial intermediaries, client introducers or referees appointed in respect of any Fund, and the respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, principals, agents, sub-contractors, group or affiliated companies and other connected parties, will be liable, responsible, or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or the relevant Fund, or to any Shareholder for any act or omission performed or omitted to be performed honestly and in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority granted to them, and in accordance with the terms of the Articles and/or the respective agreements appointing them, except as otherwise provided mandatorily by law or in the respective agreement appointing them or as otherwise described herein, in the relevant Supplement and/or the Articles. The respective agreement appointing any of the above-mentioned persons may contain limitations of liability in the sense described above (except where the act or omission giving rise to damages results from fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of such person, and other limitations of liability (such as limitations of liability to a specified maximum amount).

The Company has granted indemnities to the Custodian, the Administrator and the Investment Manager, and each of their Directors, Officers, employees and agents in respect of actions brought against them in their respective capacities provided that such actions did not involve wilful misconduct, bad faith, negligence or material breach of their obligations and duties under the relative agreements, which are available for inspection at the Company's registered office and the office of the Administrator.

Pursuant and subject to the Articles and/or the respective agreements appointing them, the Company has agreed or may agree to indemnify present and past Directors, officers and employees of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, against any liability and against all expenses reasonably incurred or paid by him in connection with any debt, claim, action, demand, suit, proceeding, judgement, decree, liability or obligation of any kind in which he becomes involved as a party or otherwise by virtue of his being or having been a director, officer or employee as aforesaid and against amounts paid or incurred by him in the settlement thereof, except where any of the foregoing is attributable to any fraud, wilful default, breach of duty or negligence on his part or otherwise in respect of which he may be guilty in relation to the Company or any Fund, including however indemnification against liabilities incurred by him in defending any proceedings in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted.

The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any such Directors or other officers or employees against any liabilities asserted against them (which insurance may also be taken out and/or paid by the Company in respect of liability for which the relevant person would not be entitled to be indemnified by the Company, since the relevant act or omission giving rise to such liability is attributable to fraud, wilful default, breach of duty or negligence on the part of such person or is otherwise an act or omission in respect of which he may be guilty in relation to the Company or any Fund).

In addition, pursuant and subject to the respective agreements appointing them, the Company has granted or may grant indemnities to any Service Provider appointed in respect of any of the Funds and any agent of the Company, to the extent permitted by law, in respect of actions brought against them in their respective capacities, where they have acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and provided such actions did not involve fraud, wilful default, breach of duty, gross negligence or dishonesty on its part.

SHARE DEALINGS

SUBSCRIPTION FOR SHARES

Subscription of Shares

Under the Articles, the Directors are given authority to effect the issue of Shares and to create new Classes of Shares (in accordance with the requirements of the Authority). The Company (acting through the Administrator) reserves the right to reject any application for Investor Shares, in whole or in part, without being obliged to give any reason and without being held liable for any loss arising as a result of such rejection. The Administrator will be responsible for processing the applications for subscription for Shares and has been appointed and empowered to exercise the rights of the Company and to deal with and communicate with applicants in connection therewith as provided in this Prospectus.

If an application is rejected, the Administrator at the risk of the applicant will return application monies or the balance thereof by electronic transfer to the account from which it was paid at the cost and risk of the applicant. For the avoidance of doubt, no interest will be payable on such amount before its return to the applicant.

The Directors may in their discretion decide, prior to the Initial Issue Date, to cancel the initial offering of Shares of any Class of a Fund. In such case, applicants having made an application for subscription will be duly informed and any subscription monies already paid will be returned in the manner set out in the preceding paragraph.

If at the end of the Initial Offer Period applicable to a Fund, the subscriptions received with respect to the said Fund are inferior to the Minimum Fund Size applicable to such Fund, the initial offer of Shares will be cancelled, and the Fund will return the proceeds (including any preliminary charges) received from investors who have made an application for subscription.

Fractions of Shares up to three (3) decimal places may be issued, in accordance with the Articles. Fractional Shares will be automatically consolidated into a whole Share of the same class when the fractional Shares held by one Shareholder become equal to a whole Share. A fractional Share (whatever its class) shall carry no voting rights.

The Application Form contains certain conditions regarding the application procedure for Shares in the Company and certain indemnities in favour of the Company, the relevant Fund, the Administrator, the Custodian and the other Shareholders for any loss suffered by them as a result of certain applicants acquiring or holding Shares.

The purchase of Shares in writing is a legally binding contract between the Company and the investor, subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this Prospectus and in the Application Form. Potential investors should be aware that (without prejudice to the Company's or the Administrator's rights to reject an application in whole or in part as provided above) an application for subscription of Shares in any Fund by the submission of an Application Form, once made, is irrevocable by them even before it becoming a legally binding contract with the Company by the acceptance thereof by the Company (acting through the Administrator) or if the Company or the Administrator later rejects the same in part and even if at the time or after the submission thereof there is a suspension or deferral of subscriptions. The Company or the Administrator may, in their absolute discretion, permit that a prospective investor who has submitted an Application Form later revokes or withdraws the same in whole or in part. Notice of any suspension of subscriptions existing at the time of submission of an Application Form will be given to the relevant prospective investor and if the Application Form is still submitted by him, then it will be irrevocable as aforesaid. Potential investors should be aware that they are not protected by and are not entitled to cancellation rights.

Application for subscriptions for Shares

Applications for the initial subscription of Shares should be submitted in writing or by facsimile to the Company care of the Administrator provided that an original, duly completed and signed Application Form (and supporting documentation in relation to prevention of money laundering checks) shall be submitted and received promptly in the case of an initial application for Shares. Subsequent subscriptions for Shares in a Fund may be made by contacting the Administrator, by facsimile, in writing or by such other means as the Directors (with the consent of the Administrator) may prescribe from time to time (where such means are in accordance with the requirements of the Authority); provided that subscriptions for Shares requested by facsimile, must be confirmed in writing. A Shareholder who places an order must provide the following information:

- the Shareholder's name and account number and the address and/or fax number to which the contract note is to be sent;
- the Fund name and Class of Shares being subscribed for;
- the amount of cash or Shares to be invested;
- a statement as to how settlement will be made; and
- confirmation that the application has been made in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Prospectus and the relevant Supplement.

This information will be confirmed to the Shareholder over a recorded telephone line.

Telephone requests will only be processed provided that the Shareholder's name and account number, and the name, address and/or fax number to which the contract note is to be sent corresponds to that listed as the Shareholder of record registered in the Register kept by the Administrator. Should the Shareholder designate that the contract note be sent to a name and/or address which differs from that registered with the Administrator, written confirmation of this change must be submitted by the Shareholder and received by the Administrator before the order will be processed.

Initial or subsequent subscriptions for Shares may also be made indirectly, that is through the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System, for onward transmission to the Company, care of the Administrator (whereby the Distributor, Sub-Distributor or Clearing System must ensure that the Application Form and supporting documents are received by the Administrator by the relevant Dealing Deadline).

The Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System may provide a nominee service for investors purchasing Shares through them. Such investors may, at their discretion, elect to make use of such service pursuant to which the nominee will hold Shares in its name for and on behalf of the investors and who, in order to empower the nominee to vote at any general meeting of Shareholders, shall provide the nominee with specific or general voting instructions to that effect. Notwithstanding the above, the investors retain the ability to invest directly in the Company, without using such nominee services.

Shares may be issued to and registered in the name of a Clearing System (or its nominee) nominated by or on behalf of an investor, by the Distributor, the relevant Sub-Distributor or third party nominee service provider, as the case may be, that is recognised and accepted by the Company. Accountholders may incur fees normally payable in respect of the maintenance and operation of accounts in such Clearing System (or nominee).

The Administrator will be responsible for processing the Application Forms and supporting documents and has been appointed and empowered to exercise the rights of the Company and to deal with and communicate with applicants / prospective investors in connection therewith. An application will not be processed until the Company and the Administrator are satisfied with the information, declarations, representations and warranties which are (or are deemed to be) given or included (expressly or by reference) in or together with the Application Form and supporting documents and that the formalities required under applicable prevention of money laundering legislation have been complied with.

Any future change to the details of an applicant and other information, declarations, representations and warranties originally supplied or given must be notified to the Company or the Administrator immediately.

Anti-Money Laundering Provisions

Measures provided for in the Criminal Code (Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta), the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (Chapter 373 of the Laws of Malta), and the Prevention of Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism Regulations (Legal Notice 108 of 2008, as amended) (the Money-Laundering rules) which are aimed towards the prevention of money laundering, require detailed verification of each applicant's identity. The Company's obligations under the Money Laundering rules include the identification of Shareholders, the retention of the relevant identification and transaction documentation and the reporting of transactions suspected of involving money laundering to the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit. In this regard, the Company will establish appropriate internal procedures to fulfil these obligations and will have a money laundering reporting officer (MLRO) appointed as required by MFSA.

As part of the Company's responsibility for the prevention of money laundering, the Company, the MLRO, the Administrator, or other authorised person, may require a detailed identification procedure with respect to a prospective Shareholder as well as information concerning the origin of the funds. For example, individual applicants (including each of the persons involved in an applicant which is an unincorporated bona fide body of persons or association) shall be required to produce:

- a) a copy of a passport or identification card bearing a photograph and signature and reference to nationality, duly certified by a Notary Public/Advocate (the Company may also accept such a copy if certified by the applicant's banker, where such is acceptable to the Company or by another reputable and appropriate source as may be accepted by the Company from time to time);
- b) evidence of the applicant's permanent residential address in the form of a utility bill or bank statement (if requested);
- c) the Company may, at its discretion, also require further information as to the applicant's date of birth, occupation, name of employer and other details;

Corporate, trust or partnership applicants shall be required to produce (as applicable):

- (a) a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation/licence/authorisation or equivalent documents of incorporation or authorisation to carry on business (and any certificate evidencing the change of name), and a certified copy of the memorandum and articles of association or other constitutional documents of the applicant company, or of the trust deed or partnership agreement (or other document evidencing the existence of the legal entity);
- (b) information regarding the business of the applicant entity including copies of accounts (if requested);
- (c) a certified copy of a recent certificate of good standing or register of directors of the applicant entity, or an extract from the commercial or trade register at the relevant chamber of commerce or equivalent document;
- (d) the names and residential and business addresses and certified copies of the passports or identity cards of all directors, beneficial owners, trustees or partners of the applicant entity;
- (e) a certified copy of the signatory card, corporate resolutions or other instrument verifying the authority of the applicant entity to make the investment and related transactions, and the authority of the respective directors, officers, partners or other

- (f) attorneys to sign on behalf of the applicant entity;
all documentation relevant for the identification of such attorneys (if requested);

In addition, the Company will require information about the source of funds in relation to the application for subscription of Shares, including the name of the account/s from which funds emanated, the account number and the name of the bank with which the account/s is/are held, name of the correspondent bank wiring the subscription monies, a copy of the swift transfer/s or other settlement documentation and any other documentation indicating the provenance of funds. The above is without prejudice to the Company's general right to request additional information and documentation at its discretion prior to accepting any application for Shares, including (but not limited to) any trust instruments involved, documents confirming the appointment of executors or administrators, certificates of corporate authority and bank references, business or professional references (as for example from accountants and lawyers).

Depending on the circumstances of each application for Investor Shares, a detailed identification procedure may not be required by the Company in terms of the Money-Laundering rules, such as where:

- a) the applicant is a person who is authorized to undertake relevant financial business (as defined in the Money-Laundering rules) or is a person who is licensed or otherwise authorized under the laws of a Member State or of a reputable jurisdiction to carry out any activity which is equivalent to relevant financial business;
- b) the applicant is a legal person listed on a regulated market authorised in a Member State or in a reputable jurisdiction subject to equivalent public disclosure requirements; or
- c) The Company is entitled, in terms of the Money-Laundering rules, to rely on or to recognise and accept the outcome of customer due diligence carried out by subject persons in terms of the Money-Laundering rules or customer due diligence carried out in accordance with requirements equivalent to those under the Money-Laundering rules by a person undertaking activities equivalent to relevant financial business or relevant activities (both terms as defined in the Money-Laundering rules) and who is situated in a Member State or in a reputable jurisdiction and is subject to authorisation or mandatory professional registration recognised by law: provided that in each case the Company has ensured that the said subject person or other person on which it is relying shall make available to it, as and when required in terms of the Money-Laundering rules, the identification and verification information and copies of relevant data and documentation.

Copies of the Application Forms and related documentation (including records evidencing compliance with the local prevention of money laundering requirements) will be kept at the registered office of the Company and will be available for inspection by the MFSA during compliance visits.

In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required as explained above, the Company (or the Administrator acting on the Company's behalf) may refuse to accept the application and return all subscription monies. If an application is rejected, the Administrator will return application monies or the balance thereof by electronic transfer to the account from which it was paid at the cost and risk of the applicant.

If any person subject to the Money-Laundering rules referred to above who is resident in Malta has a suspicion that a payment to the Company (by way of subscription or otherwise) contains the proceeds of criminal conduct, that person is required to report such suspicion, pursuant to the provisions of the above-mentioned laws to the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit ("FIAU"). The Money-Laundering rules also provide that such person is in violation of the law if, in the course of his trade, profession, business or employment, he knows or suspects that another person is engaged in money laundering and he does not report to the reporting authority in Malta as soon as reasonably practical. This includes knowledge or suspicion of activities outside Malta if such activities would have constituted money laundering if carried on within Malta. The Money-Laundering rules also contain provisions for the reporting of information indicating that a person has or may have been engaged in money laundering.

Deferral of Subscriptions

The Directors may, in their sole and absolute discretion, determine that in certain circumstances, it is detrimental for existing Shareholders to accept an application for Shares in cash or in specie, representing more than 5% of the Net Asset Value of a Fund. In such case, the Directors may postpone the application and, in consultation with the relevant investor, either require such investor to stagger the proposed application over an agreed period of time, or establish an Investment Account outside the structure of the Company in which to invest the investor's subscription monies. Such Investment Account will be used to acquire the Shares over a pre-agreed time schedule. The investor shall be liable for any transaction costs or reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition of such Shares. Any applicable Preliminary Charge will be deducted from the subscription monies before the investment of the subscription monies commences.

Processing Subscriptions

Issuances of Shares will normally be made with effect from a Dealing Day in respect of applications received on or prior to the Dealing Deadline. Dealing Days and Dealing Deadlines relating to each Fund are specified in the relevant Supplement. Applications received after the Dealing Deadline for the relevant Dealing Day shall be deemed to have been received by the next Dealing Deadline, unless the Administrator (on behalf of the Company) shall otherwise agree and provided they are received before the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day. The Directors may, in their absolute discretion and subject to the prior approval of the Custodian and the Administrator, agree to designate additional Dealing Days and Valuation Points for the purchase of Shares relating to any Fund which will be open to all Shareholders.

Different subscription procedures and time limits may apply if applications for Shares are made via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be although the ultimate deadlines with the Administrator referred to in the preceding paragraph remain unaffected. Full payment instructions for subscribing via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System may be obtained through the Distributor, the relevant Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be.

None of the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System is permitted to withhold subscription orders to benefit itself from a price change.

Investors should note that they may be unable to purchase Shares via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System on days that any such Distributor, Sub-Distributor or Clearing System is not open for business.

In circumstances in which the subscription proceeds are not received in a timely manner, the relevant allotment of Shares may be cancelled and the applicant may be required to compensate the Company for any costs and expenses thereby created.

MINIMUM INITIAL AND ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT AMOUNTS AND MINIMUM SHAREHOLDING REQUIREMENTS

The Minimum Initial Investment Amount, the Minimum Additional Investment Amount and the Minimum Shareholding of Shares of each Class of a Fund may vary and are set out in the Supplement for the relevant Fund. The Directors reserve the right from time to time to waive any requirements relating to the Minimum Initial Investment Amount, the Minimum Additional Investment Amount and the Minimum Shareholding as and when they determine at their reasonable discretion.

The Company may, at any time, repurchase all Shares from Shareholders whose holding is less than the Minimum Shareholding. In such case the Shareholder concerned will receive prior notice so as to be able to increase his holding above such amounts during such period to be determined by the Directors (and set out in the notice) following the receipt of such notice.

Subscription Price

During the Initial Offer Period for each Fund, the Initial Issue Price for Shares in the relevant Fund shall be the amount set out in the Supplement for the relevant Fund.

The issue price at which Shares of any Fund will be issued on a Dealing Day after the Initial Offer Period is calculated by ascertaining the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class on the relevant Dealing Day.

A Preliminary Charge of up to 4% of the Initial Issue Price or the Net Asset Value per Share, as appropriate, may be charged by the Company for payment to the Distributor on the issue of Shares, out of which the Distributor may, for example, pay commission to Sub-Distributors and other financial intermediaries. The amount of the Preliminary Charge (if any) applicable to a Fund will be set out in the relevant Supplement. The Company reserves the right to vary the Preliminary Charge and any variation shall be published in the Prospectus or the relevant Supplement, as the case may be, at least ninety days before it becomes effective.

Payment for Shares

Payment in respect of the issue of Shares must be made by the relevant Settlement Date by electronic transfer in cleared funds in the currency of denomination of the relevant Class of the Shares. The Administrator (acting on behalf of the Company) may, at its discretion, accept payment in other currencies, but such payments will be converted into the currency of denomination of the relevant Class of the Shares at the then prevailing exchange rate available to the Administrator and only the net proceeds (after deducting the conversion expenses) will be applied towards payment of the subscription moneys. This may result in a delay in processing the application.

No Shares shall be issued unless the issue price is paid into the assets of the relevant Fund within the term specified in each Fund Supplement, (which normally will be 17 H CET the business day preceding the dealing date) If payment in full of the issue price, including the Preliminary charge and any other charges, fees and expenses that may be payable by the applicant has not been received by the Settlement Date, or in the event of non-clearance of funds, the Administrator may treat the application as an application for such number of Shares as may be purchased with such payment on the Dealing Day next following receipt of payment in full or of cleared funds. In such cases the Company may charge the applicant for any resulting bank charges or market losses incurred by the relevant Fund.

In the case of joint applicants for subscription of Shares in any Fund, the joint applicants shall be liable, jointly and severally, in respect of all subscription monies due to the Company in respect of the Shares jointly applied for (and also for the production of such information and documentation and other obligations which may be due to the Company and the Administrator in connection with their application).

Limitations on Subscriptions

Shares may not be issued or sold by the Company during any period when the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund is suspended in the manner described under "Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value" below. Applicants subscribing for Shares directly to the Company or the Administrator will be notified of such postponement and, unless withdrawn, their applications will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the ending of such suspension. Applicants subscribing for Shares via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or applicants seeking to become Accountholders through a Clearing System as the case may be have to contact directly the Distributor, the Sub-Distributor or the relevant Clearing System for arrangements regarding application to be made or pending during such suspension period. Applications made or pending during such suspension period via the Distributor, a Sub-

Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be, will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the end of such suspension.

Shares may not be directly or indirectly offered or sold in the United States or purchased or held by or for U.S. Persons (unless permitted under certain exceptions under the laws of the United States).

Anti-Dilution Levy

In calculating the Net Asset Value per Share, the Directors may, where there are large subscriptions, adjust the Net Asset Value per Share by adding an Anti-Dilution Levy of up to 1% the Net Asset Value per Share (as described in the relevant Supplement) for retention as part of the assets of the relevant Fund, further details of which will be set out in the relevant Supplement. This Anti-Dilution Levy will cover dealing costs and is intended to preserve the value of the assets of the relevant Fund.

REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Procedure for Direct Repurchase

The Company will repurchase Shares at the request of Shareholders, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Prospectus, the Articles and the MFSA Rules. Requests for the repurchase of Shares should be made to the Company, care of the Administrator in writing, by facsimile, or by such other means as the Directors may (with the consent of the Administrator) prescribe from time to time (where such means are in accordance with the requirements of the Authority) and must in the case of requests in writing or by facsimile quote the relevant account number, the relevant Fund(s), Class of Share and any other information which the Administrator reasonably requires, and be signed by or on behalf of the Shareholder before payment of Repurchase Proceeds can be made. Repurchase requests made by facsimile e must be followed by subsequent confirmation in writing.

Repurchase requests received by fax or such other means approved by the Directors in accordance with the requirements of the Authority (with the consent of the Administrator) will only be processed provided that the Shareholder's name and account number, and the name, address and/or fax number or applicable details to which the contract note is to be sent corresponds to that listed as the Shareholder of record registered with the Administrator. Should the Shareholder designate that the contract note be sent to the name and/or address which differs from that registered with the Administrator, written confirmation of this change must be submitted by the Shareholder and received by the Administrator (and the Administrator must have made the amendments to the Shareholder's registration details) before the order will be processed.

Requests for the repurchase of Shares should be made by submitting a duly completed and signed Redemption Form, and will not be accepted and processed unless and until, the required documentation specified in such Redemption Form is submitted together with such Redemption Form to the Administrator, and is accompanied or followed by such other documents and information (including undertakings, declarations, warranties and representations) which the Administrator or the Company may request at the relevant time (for example, in order to verify the title or right of the applicant to the relevant Shares or to make the redemption request or to ensure compliance with applicable anti-money laundering laws or requirements or other applicable legal requirements or to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Prospectus, the Supplement of the relevant Fund and the Articles) in such manner and within such time as may be specified herein or in the respective Supplement or Redemption Form or as the Company or Administrator may from time to time specify. The Company and the Administrator reserve the right to request such additional information and documents (even if not specified in the relevant Redemption Form) for the above-mentioned purposes. The Company and the Administrator also reserve the right to reject a request for redemption, without deferring processing of same to a future Dealing Day when the relevant requirements are complied with, if any of the above-mentioned documents or information is not provided in the manner and within the time referred to above: this shall however be without prejudice to the irrevocability of a redemption application on the part of the applicant and the Company's or the Administrator's right to defer the redemption request until the relevant requirements are complied with.

The Administrator will be responsible for the processing of Redemption Forms and has been appointed and empowered to exercise the rights of the Company and to deal with and communicate with Shareholders in connection therewith as provided herein.

Investors should be aware that (without prejudice to the Company's or the Administrator's rights to reject a request for redemption as provided above) a request for redemption of Shares in any Fund by the submission of a Redemption Form, once made, is irrevocable by them even if the Company or the Administrator later rejects such a request and even if at the time or after the submission thereof there is a suspension or deferral of redemptions or of payment of redemption proceeds. However, the Company or the Administrator may, in their absolute discretion, permit that Shareholder who has submitted a Redemption Form later revokes or withdraws the same in whole or in part.

The Redemption Forms and related documentation, including records evidencing compliance with the applicable prevention of money laundering requirements, will be kept by the Administrator and will be available for inspection by the applicable competent authorities as may be required by applicable laws, even if the redemption request is refused.

Any Shares in any Fund which have been repurchased (in any way and in any circumstances) by the Company shall be cancelled as provided by the Companies Act.

Processing of Direct Repurchases to the Company

Requests received on or prior to the relevant Dealing Deadline will, subject as mentioned in this section and in the relevant Supplement, normally be dealt with on the relevant Dealing Day. Repurchase requests received after the Dealing Deadline shall, unless the Directors shall otherwise agree and provided they are received before the relevant Valuation Point, be treated as having been received by the following Dealing Deadline.

In no event shall Redemption Proceeds be paid until the Redemption Form has been received from the investor and all of the necessary anti-money laundering checks have been carried out.

A repurchase request will not be capable of withdrawal after acceptance by the Administrator. If requested, the Directors may, in their absolute discretion and subject to the prior approval of the Custodian, agree to designate additional Dealing Days and Valuation Points for the repurchase of Shares relating to any Fund which will be open to all Shareholders.

Repurchase Procedure with the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System

The repurchase procedures and the dealing deadlines may be different if applications for repurchase are made to the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or through a Clearing System, although the ultimate Dealing Deadlines and procedures referred to above and in the relevant Supplement will remain unaffected. Applicants for repurchases may obtain information on the repurchase procedure directly from the Distributor, the relevant Sub-Distributor or the relevant Clearing System as the case may be and should also refer to the relevant Supplement.

Repurchase Size

An applicant may request the repurchase of all or part of its Shares of any Class of a Fund.

The Minimum Repurchase Amount may vary according to the Fund or the Class of Share.

For Funds having a Scheduled Maturity Date, all Shares for which no repurchase request has been made in respect of this Scheduled Maturity Date, will be compulsorily repurchased on such Scheduled Maturity Date at the Net Asset Value per Share calculated on the Scheduled Maturity Date. A Fund will have no Scheduled Maturity Date unless otherwise determined in the relevant Supplement. Funds for which no Scheduled Maturity Date has been designated may be closed in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Articles and Shares will be repurchased at the Net Asset Value per Share (taking into account actual realisation prices of investments and realisation expenses) calculated on the Dealing Day at which such decision shall take effect, and the provisions of this Prospectus regarding total repurchases under the section “Mandatory Redemptions” below will apply mutatis mutandis.

The Administrator may decline to effect a repurchase request which would have the effect of reducing the value of any holding of Shares relating to any Fund below the Minimum Shareholding for that Class of Shares of that Fund. Any repurchase request having such an effect may be treated by the Company or the Administrator as a request to repurchase the Shareholder’s entire holding of that Class of Shares.

Repurchase Price

The Repurchase Price at which Shares will be repurchased on a Dealing Day is the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class on the relevant Dealing Day, less any applicable Repurchase Charge. The method of establishing the Net Asset Value of any Fund and the Net Asset Value per Share of any Class of Shares in a Fund is set out in the Articles as described in this Prospectus under the heading “Calculation of Net Asset Value/Valuation of Assets” below.

A Repurchase Charge of up to 3% of the Repurchase Price of any Class of Shares of a Fund, may be charged by the Company. The amount of Repurchase Charge (if any) applicable to a Fund will be set out in the relevant Supplement. The Company reserves the right to vary the Repurchase Charge and any variation shall be published in the Prospectus or the relevant Supplement, as the case may be, at least ninety days before it becomes effective. Any increase in the Repurchase Charge will only be applied to Shares issued after the date on which the increase takes effect.

Payment of Repurchase Proceeds

The amount due on repurchase of Shares will be paid in cash by electronic transfer to the relevant Shareholder’s account of record on the original Application Form in the currency of denomination of the relevant Class of Shares of the relevant Fund (or in such other currency as the Directors shall determine) by the Settlement Date. Payment of Repurchase Proceeds will be made to the registered Shareholder or in favour of the joint registered Shareholders as stated in the Articles. The Repurchase Proceeds of the Shares will only be paid on receipt by the Administrator of a repurchase request together with such other documentation and information that the Administrator may reasonably require.

Limitations on Repurchases

The Company may not repurchase Shares of any Fund during any period when the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund is suspended in the manner described under “Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value” below. Applicants for repurchases of Shares will be notified of such postponement and, unless withdrawn, their applications will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the ending of such suspension. Applicants repurchasing Shares via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be have to contact directly the Distributor, the Sub-Distributor or the relevant Clearing System for arrangements regarding repurchases to be made or pending during such suspension period. Applications made or pending during such suspension period via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be, will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the end of such suspension.

The Directors are entitled to limit the number of Shares in a Fund repurchased on any Dealing Day to Shares representing 10% of the total Net Asset Value of that Fund on that Dealing Day. In this event, the limitation will apply pro rata so that all Shareholders wishing to have Shares of that Fund repurchased on that Dealing Day realise the same proportion of such Shares. Shares not repurchased, but which would otherwise have been repurchased, will be carried forward for repurchase on the next Dealing Day and will be dealt with in priority (on a rateable basis) to repurchase requests received subsequently. If requests for repurchase are so carried forward, the Administrator will inform the Shareholders affected.

Mandatory Repurchases

The Company may, at its discretion and on its initiative without any discretion or right of the Investors to refuse, by not less than four (4) weeks notice (the Total Repurchase Notice) to all the Shareholders in such Fund, compulsorily repurchase all of the Shares of any Fund if at any time the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund is less than the Minimum Fund Size (if any) specified in the relevant Supplement. In such case, the Company or its delegates authorised to this effect will be entitled to repurchase such Shares on such day as determined by them and notified to all Shareholders, whether in the Total Repurchase Notice or in a subsequent notice (even if such day is not a normal redemption Dealing Day of the relevant Fund and even if redemptions of Shares in such Fund have been suspended or deferred at the relevant time). Such total repurchase will be made at such price per Share as is equivalent to the NAV per Share of the relevant Class as of the date of repurchase, namely the NAV calculated as of the relevant Valuation Point of the Fund which relates to the date of repurchase, or if such the date of repurchase does not correspond to an official Valuation Point of the Fund, at the NAV calculated as at such date of repurchase pursuant to an 'ad hoc' NAV calculation procured by the Directors or the Company's delegates at the relevant time, in each case after accounting for accrued fees, expenses and liabilities of the Fund and other fees and expenses which may be applicable or as the Company or its delegates on its behalf may be entitled to deduct or recover therefrom. No Repurchase Charge will apply to such total repurchases.

The Company reserves the right to repurchase any Shares which are or become owned, directly or indirectly, by a U.S. Person (unless pursuant to an exemption under U.S. securities laws), by any individual under the age of 18 (or such other age as the Directors think fit) or if the holding of the Shares by any person is in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by virtue of which such person is not qualified to hold such Shares or might result in the Company or a Fund incurring any liability to taxation or suffering other pecuniary, legal, regulatory or administrative disadvantages which the Company might not otherwise have incurred, suffered or breached.

The procedure for the mandatory repurchases of Shares as aforesaid is further detailed in the Articles.

Anti-Dilution Levy

In calculating the Repurchase Price of Shares, the Directors may, where there are large repurchases, adjust the Repurchase Price by deducting an Anti-Dilution Levy of up to 1% of the Net Asset Value per Share (as described in the relevant Supplement) for retention as part of the assets of the relevant Fund, further details of which will be set out in the relevant Supplement. This Anti-Dilution Levy will cover dealing costs and is intended to preserve the value of the assets of the relevant Fund.

EXCHANGE OF SHARES

Shareholders will be able to apply to exchange on any Dealing Day all or part of their Shares of any Class of any Fund (the Original Class) for Shares of another Class which are being offered at that time (the New Class) (such Class being of the same Fund or a different Fund) provided that all the criteria for applying for Shares in the New Class have been met and by giving notice to the Administrator on or prior to the Dealing Deadline for the relevant Dealing Day. The Administrator (acting on behalf of the Company) may however at its discretion agree to accept requests for exchange received after the relevant Dealing Deadline provided they are received prior to the relevant Valuation Point. The general provisions and procedures relating to the issue and repurchase of Shares will apply equally to exchanges, save in relation to charges payable, details of which are set out below and in the relevant Supplement.

When requesting the exchange of Shares as an initial investment in a Fund, Shareholders should ensure that the value of the Shares exchanged is equal to, or exceeds, the Minimum Initial Investment Amount for the relevant New Class specified in the Supplement for the relevant Fund. In the case of an exchange of a partial holding only, the value of the remaining holding must also be at least equal to the Minimum Shareholding for the Original Class.

The number of Shares of the New Class to be issued will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$S = \frac{[R \times (RP \times ER)] - F}{SP}$$

where:

- R = the number of Shares of the Original Class to be exchanged;
- S = the number of Shares of the New Class to be issued;
- RP = the Repurchase Price per Share of the Original Class as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day;
- ER = in the case of an exchange of Shares designated in the same Base Currency, the value of ER is 1. In any other case, the value of ER is the currency conversion factor determined by the Directors at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day as representing the effective rate of exchange applicable to the transfer of assets relating to the Original and New Classes of Shares after adjusting such rate as may be necessary to reflect the effective costs of making such transfer;
- SP = the subscription price per Share of the New Class as at the Valuation Point for the applicable Dealing Day; and
- F = the Exchange Charge (if any) payable on the exchange of Shares.

Where there is an exchange of Shares, Shares of the New Class will be allotted and issued in respect of and in proportion to the Shares of the Original Class in the proportion S to R.

An Exchange Charge of up to 2% of the Repurchase Price of the Shares being exchanged may be charged by the Company on the exchange of Shares. The amount of Exchange Charge (if any) applicable to a Fund or Class will be set out in the relevant Supplement. The Company reserves the right to vary the Exchange Charge and any variation shall be published in the Prospectus or the relevant Supplement, as the case may be, at least ninety days before it becomes effective.

Limitations on Exchange

Shares may not be exchanged for Shares of a different Class during any period when the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund or Funds is suspended in the manner described under "Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value" below. Applicants for exchange of Shares will be notified of such postponement and, unless withdrawn, their applications will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the ending of such suspension. Applicants exchanging Shares via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be have to contact directly the Distributor, the Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System for arrangements regarding exchanges to be made or pending during such suspension period. Applications made or pending during such suspension period via the Distributor, a Sub-Distributor or a Clearing System as the case may be, will be considered as at the next Dealing Day following the end of such suspension.

exhaustively set out and contain the terms and conditions of offering, issue, subscription, resale, transfer, acquisition, holding and repurchase of Shares in any of the Company's Funds. By signing and submitting the relevant application / request form, the applicant / prospective investor (and in the case of joint applications, each individual applicant) will be entering into a legally binding contract with the Company (which shall become binding on the Company if and when such application / request is accepted by the Company, acting through the Administrator):

- (c) which contract shall be governed and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Malta.

CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE/VALUATION OF ASSETS

The Administrator will be the only responsible of the calculation of the Net Asset Value.

The method of valuation of the assets and liabilities of each Fund and of the Net Asset Value shall be as set out in the Articles and this Prospectus.

The Net Asset Value of a Fund shall be expressed in the Base Currency, and shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of or attributable to the Fund and deducting from such value the liabilities of or attributable to the Fund as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day.

The Net Asset Value per Share of a Fund shall be expressed in the Base Currency or such other currency in which the Shares are designated as specified in the Prospectus and will be calculated by dividing the Net Asset Value of the Fund by the number of Shares in the Fund then in issue or deemed to be in issue as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day and rounding the result mathematically to two decimal places or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

In the event the Shares of any Fund are further divided into Classes, the Net Asset Value per Class shall be determined by notionally allocating the Net Asset Value of the Fund amongst the Classes making such adjustments for subscriptions, repurchases, fees, dividends accumulation or distribution of income and the expenses, liabilities or assets attributable to each such Class (including the gains/losses on and costs of financial instruments employed for currency hedging between the currencies in which the assets of the Fund are designated and the designated currency of the Class, which gains/losses and costs shall accrue solely to that Class) and any other factor differentiating the Classes as appropriate. The Net Asset Value of the Fund, as allocated between each Class, shall be divided by the number of Shares of the relevant Class which are in issue or deemed to be in issue and rounding the result mathematically to two decimal places as determined by the Directors or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

Subject to and save as otherwise expressly provided in the Prospectus or in the Supplement of the relevant Fund or in the Articles, there shall be established a pool of assets and liabilities for each Fund in the following manner:

- (i) The proceeds from the issue of Shares representing a Fund will be applied in the books of the Company to that Fund, and the assets and liabilities and income and expenditure attributable thereto will be applied to such Fund subject to the provisions hereof;
- (ii) Where any asset is derived from another asset, such derivative asset will be applied in the books of the Company to the same Fund as the assets from which it was derived and in each valuation of an asset, the increase or diminution in value will be applied to the relevant Fund;
- (iii) Where the Company incurs a liability which relates to any asset of or attributable to a particular Fund or to any action taken in connection with an asset of or attributable to a particular Fund or which otherwise arises from a matter or is otherwise imposed in respect of or attributable to a particular Fund, such a liability will be allocated and attributed to the relevant Fund;
- (iv) Where the Company incurs a liability which relates to or arises from a matter in respect of or attributable to two or more particular Funds (but not to all Funds), such a liability will be allocated and attributed to the relevant particular Funds, equally between such relevant Funds;
- (v) Where a liability of the Company cannot be considered as being attributable to a particular Fund/s, such liability will be allocated and attributed to all of the Company's Funds in the proportions established in and as provided in the Prospectus and/or in the Articles, and save as otherwise provided in the Prospectus (including the Funds' Supplements) and/or in the Articles, such allocation and attribution of liabilities of the Company between all the Company's Funds shall be made equally between all such Funds.

When issuing Shares constituting a Fund or Shares of a particular Class comprised in a Fund, the Directors may allocate Application, Repurchase and other fees, commission, duties and charges and ongoing expenses and generally attribute and allocate assets and liabilities on a basis which is different from that which applies in the case of Shares in other Funds or in the case of Shares of other Class/es in the same Fund, as may be set out at the relevant time in the Prospectus or in the respective Supplement/s of the relevant Fund/s or in the Articles. In such case the Directors may make such adjustments to the number of undivided parts of the relevant assets to which each Share in the relevant Funds or in the relevant Class/es shall be entitled as may be determined by the Directors so as to give effect to the different basis of attribution and shall establish separate accounts and records in the books of the Fund for each Class as appropriate to reflect and record therein the different basis attribution. Such different basis attribution and powers of the Directors will be subject to the restrictions and procedure on variation of rights of existing Shares or Classes of Shares as set out in the Articles and/or the Offering Memorandum.

Save where and to the extent otherwise expressly provided in the Prospectus or in the Supplement of the relevant Fund or in the Articles, the following rules will also apply in determining the Net Asset Value of a Fund as at any relevant Valuation Point and in determining the assets and liabilities of such Fund:

- (a) every Share in any Fund allotted by the Company (through its authorised delegates) or otherwise in respect of which the subscription application has been processed and accepted will be deemed to be in issue and the relevant Fund will be deemed to include the net amount of any cash or other property to be received in respect of each such Share (even if not yet received);
- (b) where, in consequence of any notice or repurchase request duly given and accepted by the Company (through its authorised delegates), a reduction of any Fund by the cancellation of Shares has been or is to be effected but payment in respect of such reduction has not been completed, the Shares in question will be deemed not to be in issue and any amount payable in cash or investments out of the Fund in pursuance of such reduction will be deducted;
- (c) where any investment or other property has been agreed to be acquired or realised and title, rights and obligations thereto or in respect thereof have passed to or from the Company, as the case may be, but such acquisition or disposal has not been fully completed by payment of the respective consideration, such investment or other property will be included or excluded, as the case may be, and the gross acquisition or net disposal consideration excluded or included, as the case may require, as if such acquisition or disposal had been duly completed, subject to such adjustments or allowances as the Directors or their delegate consider appropriate if such consideration is payable or receivable, as the case may be, at some future date subsequent to the relevant Valuation Point;

- (d) there will be included in the assets all cash at hand or on deposit, bills, demand and promissory notes and accounts receivable, as well as all dividends and distributions and interest declared or accrued on investments of the relevant Fund and not yet received (save where this is included in the quoted price of the relevant investment), and all other assets and property of every kind and nature including pre-paid expenses;
- (e) there will also be included in the assets an amount equal to all such costs, charges, fees and expenses as the Directors may have determined to amortise less the amount thereof which has previously been or is then to be written off (which will be included in the liabilities);
- (f) there will be included in the liabilities an appropriate provision for any taxes (based on capital and income at the relevant Valuation Point) or contingencies, as estimated and determined from time to time by the Directors (or their delegate), and other reserves, if any, authorised and approved by the Directors;
- (g) there will also be included in the liabilities all amounts accrued or payable under the various agreements with the relevant Service Providers (as appropriate and attributable to each Class of Shares) as well as all accrued or payable administrative or other expenses;
- (h) there will be further included in the liabilities the total amount (whether actual or estimated by the Directors or their delegate) of any other known liabilities attributable to the relevant Fund (or to the relevant Class of Shares, as applicable), including outstanding borrowings and accrued interest on borrowings (if any) and all other matured contractual obligations for payments of money or property, including also the amount of any unpaid dividends declared on Shares, but excluding liabilities already taken into account in paragraph (c) above;
- (i) the Company may calculate and recalculate administrative and other expenses of or attributable to a Fund which are of a regular or recurring nature on an estimated figure for yearly or other periods in advance and may accrue the same in equal proportions on Valuation Points over any such period;
- (j) the value of all assets or liabilities not expressed in the Base Currency of the Fund (or the currency of the Class of Shares to which these assets or liabilities are attributable) shall be converted into such Base Currency (or Class currency, as appropriate) at such rate of exchange determined as at the relevant Valuation Point in good faith and in accordance with procedures established by the Directors (or their delegate).

The assets and liabilities of a Fund will be valued as follows:-

- (a) Assets listed or traded on a stock exchange or over-the-counter market (other than those referred to at (e) and (g) below) for which market quotations are readily available shall be valued at the last quoted official close of business price on the principal exchange or market for such investment as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day provided that the value of any investment listed on a stock exchange but acquired or traded at a premium or at a discount outside the relevant stock exchange may with the approval of the Directors be valued taking into account the level of premium or discount as at the date of valuation of the investment. Such premiums or discounts thereon above shall be provided by an independent broker or market maker or if such premiums/discounts are unavailable, by the Investment Manager. However, the Administrator may adjust the value of investments traded on an over-the-counter market if it considers such adjustment is required to reflect the fair value thereof in the context of currency, marketability, dealing costs and/or such other considerations as are deemed relevant.

If for specific assets the official close of business prices do not, in the opinion of the Administrator, reflect their fair value or are not available, the value shall be calculated with care and in good faith by the Administrator, (being approved by the Directors as a competent persons for such purpose) with a view to establishing the probable realisation value for such assets as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day.

- (b) If the assets are listed or traded on several stock exchanges or over-the-counter markets, the official close of business prices on the stock exchange or over-the-counter market which, in the opinion of the Administrator, constitutes the main market for such assets, will be used.
- (c) In the event that any of the investments as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day are not listed or traded on any stock exchange or over-the-counter market, such securities shall be valued at their probable realisation value determined by the Administrator (being approved by the Directors as a competent persons for such purpose) with care and in good faith. Such probable realisation value will be determined:
 - (i) by using the original purchase price;
 - (ii) where there have been subsequent trades with substantial volumes, by using the last traded price provided the Administrator considers such trades to be at arm's length;
 - (iii) where the Administrator believes the investment has suffered a diminution in value, by using the original purchase price which shall be discounted to reflect such a diminution;
 - (iv) if the Administrator believes a mid-quotation from a broker is reliable, by using such a mid-quotation or, if unavailable, a bid quotation.

Alternatively, the Administrator may use such probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith and as may be recommended by a competent professional appointed by the Administrator or the Investment Manager and approved for such purpose by the Directors. Due to the nature of such unquoted securities and the difficulty in obtaining a valuation from other sources, such competent professional may be related to the Investment Manager.

- (d) Cash and other liquid assets will be valued at their face value with interest accrued, where applicable.
- (e) Units or shares in open-ended collective investment schemes will be valued at the latest available net asset value as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day; units or shares in closed-ended collective investment schemes will, if listed or traded on a stock exchange or regulated market, be valued at the official close of business price on the principal exchange or market for such investment as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day or, if unavailable at the probable realisation value, as estimated with care and in good faith and as may be recommended by a competent professional appointed by the Administrator or the Investment Manager and approved for the purpose by the Directors.
- (f) Any value expressed otherwise than in the Base Currency of the relevant Fund (whether of an investment or cash) and any non-Base Currency borrowing shall be converted into the Base Currency at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Administrator deems appropriate in the circumstances.

- (g) Exchange traded derivative instruments will be valued at the settlement price for such instruments on such market as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day; if such price is not available such value shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Administrator approved for such purpose by the Directors. Over-the-counter derivative instruments will be valued at the latest valuation for such instruments as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day as provided by the counterparty on a daily basis and verified on a weekly basis by a competent person (being independent from the counterparty), approved for such purpose by the Directors. Forward foreign exchange contracts shall be valued as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day by reference to the prevailing market maker quotations, namely, the price at which a new forward contract of the same size and maturity could be undertaken, or, if unavailable, they shall be valued at the settlement price as at the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day as provided by the counterparty on a daily basis and verified on a weekly basis by a competent person (being independent from the counterparty), approved for such purpose by the Directors.

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (g) above:-

- (i) The Administrator may, at its discretion in relation to any particular Fund which is a money market type Fund, value any investment with a known residual maturity of fifteen Months or less by using the amortised cost method of valuation whereby the investment is valued at its acquisition cost adjusted for amortisation of premium or accretion of discount on the investment. The Administrator or its delegate shall review or cause a review to take place of deviations between the amortised method of valuation and the market value of investments, in accordance with the requirements of the Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator may value floating rate instruments by using the amortised cost method of valuation where such floating rate instruments:
- (1) have an annual or shorter reset date; and
 - (2) are determined by the Administrator to have a market value that approximates the amortised cost valuation; and
 - (3) have a residual value of two years or less or, in the case of investment grade instruments, up to five years provided that procedures are adopted for instruments having a residual maturity of between two and five years to ensure that the valuation produced does not vary significantly from the true market value.
- (iii) The Administrator may, at its discretion, in relation to any particular Fund which is not a money market type fund but which invests in money market type instruments, value bonds, interest rate swaps, commercial paper, floating rate notes or similar instruments on the basis of amortised cost provided that each such security being valued using the amortised cost basis of valuation shall have a residual maturity not exceeding 6 Months.
- (h) In the event of it being impossible or incorrect to carry out a valuation of a specific investment in accordance with the valuation rules set out in paragraphs (a) to (g) above, or if such valuation is not representative of the security's fair market value, the value shall be estimated by the Administrator or its delegate with care and in good faith, or by a competent person approved for the purpose by the Directors, using an alternative method approved by the Directors.

If in any case a particular value is not ascertainable as provided above or if the Directors shall consider that some other method of valuation better reflects the fair value of the relevant investment, then in such case the method of valuation of the relevant investment shall be such as the Directors in their absolute discretion shall determine.

SUSPENSION OF CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

The Directors (or the relevant Service Provider authorised to do so) may temporarily suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value of any Fund and the subscription, repurchase and exchange of Shares and the payment of Repurchase Proceeds, in exceptional circumstances, where the circumstances so require and where suspension is justified having regard to the interests of the Shareholders of the relevant Fund, including during:

- (i) any period when any of the Markets on which a substantial portion of the investments of the relevant Fund, from time to time, are quoted, listed or dealt in is closed, otherwise than for ordinary holidays, or during which dealings therein are restricted or suspended; or
- (ii) any period when, as a result of political, economic, military or monetary events or any circumstances outside the control, responsibility and power of the Directors, disposal or valuation of a substantial portion of the investments of the relevant Fund is not reasonably practicable without this being seriously detrimental to the interests of Shareholders of the relevant Fund or if, in the opinion of the Directors, the Net Asset Value of the Fund cannot be fairly calculated; or
- (iii) any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of a substantial portion of the investments of the relevant Fund, or when, for any other reason the current prices on any Market of any of the investments of the relevant Fund cannot be promptly and accurately ascertained; or
- (iv) any period during which any transfer of funds involved in the realisation or acquisition of investments of the relevant Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected at normal prices or rates of exchange; or
- (v) any period when the Directors are unable to repatriate funds required for the purpose of making payments due on the repurchase of Shares in the relevant Fund; or
- (vi) any period when the Directors consider it to be in the best interest of the relevant Fund; or
- (vii) following the decision to dissolve and wind up the Company or the relevant Fund, the circulation to Shareholders of a notice of a meeting at which a resolution proposing to dissolve and wind up the Company or the relevant Fund is to be considered (where required in terms of the Articles) or an application made to the court for the dissolution and winding up of the Company or the relevant Fund.

Where possible, all reasonable steps will be taken to bring any period of suspension to an end as soon as possible.

The MFSA has the right to require the suspension of the repurchase of Shares in any Fund, where the MFSA considers this appropriate in the interests of the Shareholders of the relevant Fund or of the public.

Shareholders who have requested subscriptions or repurchases of Shares of any Class or exchanges of Shares of one Class to another will be notified of any such suspension in such manner as may be directed by the Directors and, subject to the limitation referred to above, their requests will be dealt with on the first relevant Dealing Day after the suspension is lifted. Any such suspension will be notified on the same Business Day to the Authority and, in relation to applicable Shares, as requested by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the competent authorities in the jurisdictions in which the Shares are marketed. Details of any such suspension will also be notified to all Shareholders and will be published in a newspaper circulating in an appropriate jurisdiction, or such other publications as the Directors may determine if, in the opinion of the Directors, it is likely to exceed 14 days.

NOTIFICATION OF PRICES

The issue price and Repurchase Price of each Class of Shares of each Fund will be available from the Administrator, and, if the relevant Shares are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, will be notified without delay to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Company (through the Administrator) will publish the issue price and Repurchase Price of the Shares for each Dealing Day, and at least twice a Month. The issue price and Repurchase Price of the Shares may be published on each Business Day in one or more financial newspapers in such countries where the Funds are distributed to the public. Such prices will usually be the prices applicable to the previous Dealing Day's trades and are therefore only indicative.

Shares entered on the Register of the Company will be in non-certificated form (and will be evidence by a book entry in the Register) and share certificates will not be issued. The Company will not issue bearer Shares. Contract notes providing details of the trade will normally be issued within four Banking Days of the relevant Dealing Day. An entry in the Register will be conclusive evidence of ownership (save for manifest error). Confirmation of ownership evidencing entry in the Register will normally be issued on a monthly basis upon receipt of all original documentation required by the Administrator.

Transfers (including assignments) of Shares (under any title, including transfers of Shares made by a person becoming entitled thereto pursuant to a transmission causa mortis or transfers or appropriation of Shares pursuant to the enforcement of a pledge on such Shares), transmission of Shares causa mortis and pledging of Investor Shares are subject to any conditions contained in this Prospectus and the Articles. Subject to such conditions, Shares in any Fund may be transferred or transmitted causa mortis or pledged. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Investor Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

The transfer of interests in Shares registered in the name of a Clearing System may be arranged by the Accountholder directly with the relevant Clearing System. Accountholders who wish to transfer their interests in Shares out of a Clearing System must also apply directly to the relevant Clearing System. Transfers made by the Accountholders within any Clearing System may be made between Accountholders on the books of the Clearing System and will not be registered on the register as the relevant Clearing System (or its nominee) will remain the registered Shareholder.

The transfer of Shares by a Shareholder shall be effected by an instrument in writing in common form or in any other form approved by the Directors and signed by (or, in the case of a transfer by a body corporate, signed on behalf of or sealed by) the transferor and the transferee. In the case of the death of one of joint Shareholders, the survivor or survivors will be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in the Shares registered in the names of such joint Shareholders. Transmissions causa mortis and their registration in the Register will be dealt with as provided in the Articles.

Such applications must be made in writing using the respective Transfer Registration Form for Shares in such Fund in the form determined and provided by the Company (through the relevant Administrator) from time to time, which must be duly completed and signed by, as the case may be, the transferee or transmittee (in its capacity as the applicant on such Form) or on his behalf by his duly authorised agent, and in the case of a transfer (and where so requested by the Company or the Administrator) it must also be counter-signed by the respective transferor (including, where applicable, the person becoming entitled to the relevant Shares pursuant to a transmission causa mortis who elects to transfer such Shares to a third party rather than being registered himself as the holder thereof). Facsimile transmission of the Transfer Registration Form will be acceptable to initiate a registration application, but the application will not be accepted until the Administrator has received the original Form from or on behalf of the applicant in good order (unless the Company or the Administrator, in its absolute discretion, decides otherwise).

The Transfer Registration Form shall be accompanied or followed by (within such time and in such manner as may be specified in such Form or as the Company or Administrator may specify at the relevant time) and will not be accepted and processed unless and until the Administrator receives:

- (a) the required documentation specified in such Transfer Registration Form;
- (b) in the case of a transfer, the official instrument of transfer (or an authentic copy thereof);
- (c) both in the case of a transferee or transmittee, any other documents and information (including undertakings, declarations, warranties and representations) which the Administrator or the Company may request at the relevant time (and they reserve the right to request same) in order to verify the title or right of the applicant to the relevant Shares or to make the registration request contained in the Transfer Registration Form or in order to ensure compliance with applicable anti-money laundering laws or requirements (as explained above in the section Anti-Money Laundering Provisions) or other applicable legal requirements or to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Prospectus, the relevant Supplement and the Articles.

The registration of the transferee or transmittee as holder of the Investor Shares in the Register pursuant to a Transfer Registration Form duly submitted to the Administrator and accepted by the Company (through the Administrator) is a legally binding contract between the Company and such transferee or transmittee, subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this Prospectus and in the Transfer Registration Form.

Without prejudice to any other declarations, representations and warranties which are (or are deemed to be) given by the applicant to the Company or the Administrator, by signing and submitting a Transfer Registration Form the transferee or transmittee agrees and undertakes (and will automatically be deemed to agree and undertake) in favour of the Company to take and hold the relevant Shares subject to the same conditions, warranties, obligations and restrictions pursuant to which the said Shares were held by the transferor, or deceased Shareholder (as the case may be), and the Company and the Administrator are entitled to request an express undertaking in writing to this effect before accepting the Transfer Registration Form.

An application will not be processed until the Company and the Administrator are satisfied with all the information, declarations, representations and warranties which are (or are deemed to be) given or included (expressly or by reference) in or together with the respective Transfer Registration Form and that the formalities required under applicable prevention of money laundering legislation have been complied with.

Any future change to the details of an applicant and other information, declarations, representations and warranties originally supplied or given must be notified to the Company or the Administrator immediately.

Shares may not be transferred to (and registration of a transfer or transmission may be refused by the Company, acting through the Administrator, if made to): (i) a U.S. Person (unless permitted under certain exemptions under the laws of the United States); or (ii) any person who does not clear such money laundering checks as the Directors may determine or who has not supplied the declarations, information and documentation requested to the satisfaction of the Directors or the Administrator; or (iii) any person who appears to be in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by virtue of which such person is not qualified to hold such Shares; or (iv) any person or persons in circumstances (whether directly or indirectly affecting such person or persons, and whether taken alone or in conjunction with any other person or persons, connected or not, or any other circumstances appearing to the Directors to be related) which, in the opinion of the Directors might result in the Company or the Fund incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary legal or material administrative disadvantages or being in breach of any law or regulation which the Company or the Fund might not otherwise have incurred, suffered or breached; or (v) any individual under the age of 18 (or such other age as the Directors may think fit) or of unsound mind; or (vi) any person unless the transferee of such Shares would, following such transfer, be the holder of Shares equal to or greater than the Minimum Initial Investment Amount; or (vii) any person in circumstances where as a result of such transfer the transferor or transferee would hold less than the Minimum Shareholding; or (viii) any person where in respect of such transfer any payment of taxation remains outstanding; or (ix) is any other circumstances prohibited by the Articles as described herein. Registration of any transfer may be refused by the Company if, following the transfer, either transferor or transferee would hold Shares having a value less than the Minimum Shareholding for that Class of Shares specified in the Supplement for the relevant Fund.

When the Company (through the Administrator) accepts a Transfer Registration Form, written confirmation by way of registration advice will be sent to the respective applicant as soon as possible and practicable thereafter. If the Company or the Administrator refuses to register a transfer or transmission of Investor Shares, the Administrator will, within fifty (50) days of receipt of the relevant Transfer Registration Form together with all the relevant documentation and information required or requested as aforesaid, send to the transferee or transmittee (as the case may be) a notice of the refusal, failing which the Company shall be deemed to have approved the registration of such transfer or transmission.

All transfers and transmissions the registration whereof is accepted will be recorded on the Register and neither the Company nor the relevant Fund nor their respective functionaries and agents will be responsible to either the transferor or the transferee or transmittee for following their instructions in good faith as set out in the transfer agreement, Transfer Registration Form or other evidence produced.

The registration of transfers or transmissions causa mortis may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Company from time to time may determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any one calendar year.

The Transfer Registration Forms and related documentation, including records evidencing compliance with the applicable prevention of money laundering requirements, will be kept by the Administrator and will be available for inspection by the relevant competent authorities as may be required by applicable laws, even where the application is refused: provided that where an instrument of transfer has been delivered in original and the application is refused such instrument shall (except in the case of fraud) be returned to the applicant.

Prospective investors should note that the Articles do not confer pre-emption rights to existing Shareholders in respect of new issues or allotment or the transfer of Investor Shares or any other Shares.

All transfers and transmissions of Shares are subject in all cases to any pledge (duly constituted and recognised and registered in the Register) of the Shares and to any applicable laws and regulations.

Pledges

The pledge of Shares shall be constituted by means of an instrument in writing entered into between and signed by (or on behalf of) the relevant Shareholder (as pledgor) and the pledgee.

Subject to the provisions and conditions of this Prospectus and the Articles dealing with pledging of Shares and the exercise of rights (including enforcement rights) under any such pledge and save as modified by such provisions and conditions, such pledge and the exercise of rights thereunder shall be regulated by the relevant provisions of law (in particular, Regulation 14 of the SICAV Regulations). The aforesaid provisions and conditions of this Prospectus and the Articles and compliance thereof by the Shareholder pledging his Shares and by the pledgee in holding and exercising his rights under such pledge shall be and be deemed to be a pre-condition to the pledgeability of the Shares and to the validity of the pledge agreement entered into between such pledgee and the relevant Shareholder and the pledge constituted thereby, such that the entry into of a pledge agreement in respect of or the making or granting of a pledge of Shares or the exercise of rights thereunder or pursuant thereto by the pledgee which is to any extent inconsistent with the said provisions and conditions shall, for the purposes of Regulation 14(2) of the above-mentioned Regulations, render such pledge as a pledge which is not permissible under the Articles of the Company.

Applications for the registration in the Register of a pledge of Shares in any of the Funds may be made directly to the Administrator, who will be responsible for the processing of the same, by means of an appropriate notice of pledge in terms of law. Such notice must be duly signed by the pledgee and (where so requested by the Company or the Administrator) it must also be counter-signed by the pledgor. The notice of pledge must be accompanied or followed by (within such time and in such manner as the Company or Administrator may specify at the relevant time) and will not be accepted and processed unless and until the Administrator receives an authentic copy of the signed pledge agreement as well as any other documents and information (including undertakings, declarations, warranties and representations) which the Administrator or the Company may request at the relevant time (and they reserve the right to request same) in order to verify the right of the pledgee to be registered as the pledgee of the relevant Shares and to exercise the respective rights (in terms of the pledge agreement and/or the law) or to ensure compliance with applicable anti-money laundering laws or requirements (as explained above in the section Anti-Money Laundering Provisions) or other applicable legal requirements or to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Prospectus and the Articles (including, without limitation, to ascertain the non-existence of any circumstances in which registration of the pledge may be refused as specified below).

Without prejudice to any other declarations, representations and warranties which may be given by the pledgee to the Company or the Administrator, by signing and submitting a notice of pledge, the pledgee agrees and undertakes (and will automatically be deemed to agree and undertake) in favour of the Company: (i) to exercise any rights which in terms of the relevant pledge agreement vest in him during the subsistence of the pledge before the enforcement thereof, and to eventually exercise the right to transfer the Shares to a third party (pursuant to an enforcement of the pledge), subject to the same conditions, warranties, obligations and restrictions pursuant to which the said rights and transfer were or could have been exercised or made by the pledgor, (ii) that in the case of an eventual enforcement of the pledge through appropriation of the Shares by the pledgee, the pledgee will be required to comply fully with the procedures, terms and conditions set out herein and in the Articles relating to a transfer of Shares (as if he was a transferee for all intents and purposes) and to take and hold the relevant Shares subject to the same conditions, warranties, obligations and restrictions pursuant to which the Shares were held by the pledgor.

In case of an enforcement of a pledge on Shares by the appropriation of the relevant Shares by the pledgee or by the transfer of the relevant Shares to a third party, this will be deemed to be a separate transfer of the Shares (distinct from the original pledge itself) for the purposes of the relevant parts of this Prospectus and the Articles, and shall be subject to the rules, procedures, terms and conditions contained therein dealing with a transfer of Shares and the pledgee and/or (as the case may be) the third party transferee will need to comply therewith.

The Company (acting through the Administrator) may refuse to register a pledge of any Share/s if: (i) the manner, form or evidence of pledge is unacceptable or not registrable in accordance with the laws of Malta; (ii) the declarations, information and documentation requested have not been supplied to the satisfaction of the Company and the Administrator; (iii) if the pledge and/or the registration thereof in the Register and/or the holding of Shares or exercise of rights relating thereto by the pledgee may in the opinion of the Company result in Shares being owned by a U.S. Person (unless permitted under certain exemptions under the laws of the United States); or any person who does not clear such money laundering checks as the Directors may determine or who has not supplied the declarations, information and documentation requested to the satisfaction of the Directors or the Administrator; or any person who appears to be in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by virtue of which such person is not qualified to hold such Shares; or any person or persons in circumstances (whether directly or indirectly affecting such person or persons, and whether taken alone or in conjunction with any other person or persons, connected or not, or any other circumstances appearing to the Directors to be related) which, in the opinion of the Directors might result in the Company or the Fund incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary legal or material administrative disadvantages or being in breach of any law or regulation which the Company or the Fund might not otherwise have incurred, suffered or breached; or any individual under the age of 18 (or such other age as the Directors may think fit) or of unsound mind; or any person who would hold less than the Minimum Shareholding; or (iv) is any other circumstances prohibited by the Articles.

All pledges the registration whereof is accepted will be recorded on the Register and neither the Company nor the relevant Fund nor their respective functionaries and agents will be responsible to either the pledgor or the pledgee for following their instructions in good faith as set out in the pledge agreement, notice of pledge or other evidence produced.

The Administrator shall inform the pledgee of an acceptance or refusal of the request for registration as soon as possible and practicable after receipt of the notice of pledge together with all the relevant documentation and information required or requested as aforesaid.

The notice of pledge and related documentation, including records evidencing compliance with the applicable prevention of money laundering requirements, will be kept by the Administrator and will be available for inspection by the relevant competent authorities as may be required by applicable laws, even where the request for registration is refused.

- Transaction Fees

Transaction Fees are any fees and expenses incurred in buying and selling securities or other investments held by a Fund, e.g., brokerage costs and commissions and correspondence fees for transferring securities or investments or other interests, unless otherwise specified in the relevant Supplement.

To the extent that general expenses (whether or not specifically mentioned as Fixed Fees) are not specific to any particular Fund/s (but not all) and save to the extent that such general expenses may be waived or otherwise discharged by any person other than the Company and to the extent that they are not to be discharged otherwise in terms of the foregoing provisions of this section or of the Supplements or terms of issue of Shares of any Fund, such expenses shall be allocated and attributable to and constitute a liability of and be paid exclusively by and out of the assets of all the Fund/s of the Company established at the relevant time of payment, in equal portions between them. However, should any such expenses relate or be attributable solely to one or more specific Funds (but not to all), such expenses and any VAT or other tax having a similar effect which may be payable in respect thereof will be solely allocated and attributable to and constitute a liability of and be paid exclusively by and out of the assets of the relevant Fund/s, equally between such relevant Funds.

The Company will on an on-going basis keep proper accounting records of all expenses and dates when these are incurred, as well as of the attribution, apportionment and charging of expenses to each of the Funds and their respective assets, which shall be kept in such manner as to constitute appropriate evidence that the rules on payment of expenses mentioned above have been duly followed.

TAXATION

General

The following statements on taxation are with regard to the law and practice in force in the relevant jurisdiction at the date of this document and do not constitute legal or tax advice to Shareholders or prospective Shareholders. As is the case with any investment, there can be no guarantee that the tax position or proposed tax position prevailing at the time an investment in the Company is made will endure indefinitely as the basis for, and rates of, taxation can fluctuate.

Prospective Shareholders should familiarise themselves with and, where appropriate, take advice on the laws and regulations (such as those relating to taxation and exchange controls) applicable to the subscription for, and the holding and repurchase of, Shares in the places of their citizenship, residence and domicile.

The levels and bases of taxation are dependent on individual circumstances and subject to change and therefore it is highly recommended that you consult a professional tax adviser.

Malta

This section aims to summarise the tax regime applicable to the Company and to give an indication of whether deductions are made at source from the income and capital gains that may be paid by the Company to Shareholders, under Maltese tax law.

The Company

The tax regime for collective investment schemes is based on the classification of funds into prescribed or non-prescribed funds in terms of the conditions set out in the Collective Investment Schemes (Investment Income) Regulations, 2001 (Legal Notice 55 of 2001 as amended). In general, a prescribed fund is defined as a resident fund which has declared that the value of its assets situated in Malta amount to at least eighty-five per cent (85%) of the value of the total assets of the fund.

In respect of Funds which are classified as non-prescribed funds, a tax exemption at the Fund level applies on all the income/capital gains (except for income from immovable property situated in Malta, if any).

Investment income (other than investment income paid by another licensed collective investment scheme) as defined in the Income Tax Act (Chapter 123 of the Laws of Malta) received by a prescribed Fund is subject to a withholding tax and such income cannot be received by the Fund gross of tax. The applicable rate of withholding tax is currently 15% on local bank interest and 10% on investment income other than local bank interest.

The Company (whether in respect of prescribed or non-prescribed Funds) is not entitled to a credit or to a refund of any tax at source deducted from income received by the Company. Other income and capital gains (except for income from immovable property situated in Malta, if any) remain exempt in the hands of prescribed Funds.

In respect of both prescribed and non-prescribed Funds, capital gains, dividends, interest and any other income from non-Maltese securities or other investments and assets held by the Company may be subject to tax imposed by the country of origin concerned and such taxes may not be recoverable by the Company or its Shareholders.

The Shareholders

(i) Capital gains realised by non-Maltese resident Shareholders

Capital gains (or gains) realised on transfers or redemptions by non-Maltese-residents of Shares in the Company (whether Shares of prescribed Funds or Shares of non-prescribed Funds) are exempt from Maltese income tax. For such an income tax exemption to apply all of the following conditions should be satisfied:

- the gains must be derived by a person (whether corporate or otherwise) who is not resident in Malta, and
- the beneficial owner of the gain is a person (whether corporate or otherwise) not resident in Malta and such person is not owned and controlled by, directly or indirectly, nor acts on behalf of an individual or individuals who are ordinarily resident and domiciled in Malta.

(ii) Capital gains realised by Maltese resident Shareholders

The provisions of this paragraph (ii), as they relate to the tax treatment of capital gains by Maltese resident Shareholders, are given by way of information only and shall be without prejudice to the selling and holding restrictions and disqualifications applicable to Shares in terms hereof or of the Articles.

Capital gains realised by Maltese-resident Shareholders of the Company on the redemption, liquidation, or cancellation of Shares in resident non-prescribed Funds may be subject to a 15% final withholding tax and the obligation to deduct such tax at source lies on the Company. However the resident Shareholder has the option to request the Company not to effect the deduction of the said 15% withholding tax in which case the Shareholder would be required to declare the gains in his income tax return and will be subject to tax at the normal rates.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the section 'Exchange of Shares' under the part 'Share Dealings' above, switching of Shares from a non-prescribed Fund to another Fund (whether prescribed or non-prescribed) of the Company constitutes a taxable transfer for income tax purposes. However no tax is chargeable at the point of the switch. When switched securities are eventually disposed of, the calculation of the taxable gains in the hands of Maltese-resident Shareholders will take into account any chargeable gains or allowable losses arising from all intermediate switches as well as from the final transfer.

Capital gains realised by Maltese-resident Shareholders on direct transfers (if any) of Shares in non-prescribed Funds to third parties must be declared by the transferor in his tax return and tax is charged thereon at normal rates, so however that on an eventual redemption, the gain on redemption is calculated without reference to the direct intermediate transfer.

Capital gains realised by resident Shareholders by way of a transfer or redemption of Shares in prescribed Funds would be exempt for as long as the Shares are listed on the Malta Stock Exchange.

(iii) Dividends paid by the Company to non-Maltese resident Shareholders

Distributions of dividends by the Company to non-Maltese resident Shareholders (whether such dividends are reinvested or otherwise) should not be liable to any Maltese tax, whether by way of withholding or otherwise, as long as such non-Maltese resident Shareholders are not owned and controlled by, directly or indirectly, nor act on behalf of, an individual who is ordinarily resident and domiciled in Malta.

(iv) Dividends paid by the Company to Maltese resident Shareholders

The provisions of this paragraph (iv), as they relate to the tax treatment of dividends to Maltese resident Shareholders, are given by way of information only and shall be without prejudice to the selling and holding restrictions and disqualifications applicable to Shares in terms hereof or of the Articles.

In terms of the Income Tax Act, dividends from Malta source taxed profits, Malta source profits which are exempt from tax up to the level of the ultimate shareholder, or profits received by the Company from the foreign income account of another Maltese company should inter alia not be subject to a withholding tax or to further tax in the hands of the Maltese resident Shareholders. In the case of distributions from the Company's Final Tax Account (income allocated to such an account would include inter alia "investment income" as defined in the Income Tax Act received by a prescribed Fund) the Shareholders would not be entitled to claim a credit or refund of any tax directly or indirectly paid on such profits.

Distributions from the Company's foreign source profits allocated to the Company's Untaxed Account to a Maltese resident person (other than a company) or to a non-resident person who is owned and controlled by, directly or indirectly, or who acts on behalf of a person who is ordinarily resident and domiciled in Malta, should inter alia be subject to a withholding tax of 15%. The withholding tax should be deducted by the Company and the dividend would be passed on to the Shareholders net of the tax. The Maltese resident Shareholder (other than a company) may opt to declare such dividends paid from the Untaxed Account of the Company in the income tax return and in that case the 15% withholding tax would be available as a credit (or refund, as the case may be) against the Shareholder's tax liability.

Distributions from the Company's equalisation reserve are treated as dividends for income tax purposes and are likely to be subject to a withholding tax of 15% when paid to a Maltese resident person (other than a company). The Maltese resident Shareholder (other than a company) has the option to declare such a dividend in the income tax return with the 15% withholding tax being available as a credit (or a refund, as the case may be) against the Shareholder's tax liability.

EU Savings Directive

Shareholders who are individuals resident in an EU Member State or certain other jurisdictions should be aware of the provisions of the Council Directive 2003/48/EC of June 3, 2003 on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments (Savings Directive) pursuant to which income/ gains realized from shares in certain undertakings for collective investment may (depending upon the location, classification and investment portfolio of the undertaking) possibly become subject to the exchange of information regime (or where the paying agent in terms of the Savings Directive is established in Luxembourg and Austria, to the transitional withholding tax regime) imposed by the Savings Directive, if such payment is made by a paying agent established either in an EU Member State or in certain other jurisdictions which have agreed to introduce an equivalent reporting regime in respect of such payments.

However in the context of collective investment schemes there may be instances where the Directive may not be applicable. Due to the fact that these rules are complex and their implementation is subject to the specific nature of each case (and the Company's circumstances may also be subject to change), Shareholders who are individuals or acting as nominees and who are resident in the European Union or in certain other jurisdictions covered by the Savings Directive should consult their own tax advisers as to applicability or otherwise of the Savings Directive.

The above descriptions of tax consequences of an investment in a Fund are based on an interpretation of tax law and practice relative to the applicable legislation, as known to the Company at the date of this Prospectus, in respect of a subject on which no official guidelines exist. Potential and existing Investors are reminded that tax law and practice and their interpretation as well as the levels of tax may change from time to time.

Shareholders

Each Fund may have a different tax treatment in the different jurisdictions, which may depend upon whether or not the fund has obtained the so called "European Passport" by proper communication to the different regulators. It is the sole responsibility of each shareholder to request external legal and tax advisory in order to assess whether each fund constitute an “adequate” of tax efficient investment for its purposes.

The tax consequences of any investment can vary considerably from one jurisdiction to another, and ultimately will depend on the tax regime of the jurisdictions within which a person is tax resident. Therefore the Directors strongly recommend that Shareholders obtain tax advice from an appropriate source in relation to the tax liability arising from the holding of Shares in the Company and any investment returns from those Shares. It is the Director’s intention to manage the affairs of the Company so that it does not become resident outside of Malta for tax purposes.

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (“GDPR”)

General Data Protection Regulations “GDPR” Risks: With the coming into force of GDPR as of the 25th of May, 2018 across all EU Member States, the (Fund) is subject to increased responsibilities regarding Data Protection. These may lead to increased operational risks in terms of the collection, storage, and processing of confidential information. Operational costs, as well as compliance costs will be incurred, particularly during the period of implementation due to the changes in the Manager and Fund’s policies and procedures.

In addition to the GDPR’s include wide-ranging requirements concerning the collection, storage, processing of personal information as well as its use. It also requires that data protection be at the forefront of any considerations such as the creation of new products and services, as well as requiring upgraded requirements for accountability and transparency vis-à-vis the regulatory bodies and data subjects, including strict time limits on breach reporting.

It is important to note that the GDPR brings with it increased compliance risk in the form of significant administrative fines and compensation of data subjects, which may be borne by the Fund in the event of an error in implementation or enforcement, together with the reputational risk associated with such breaches. These will be primarily an issue during the initial implementation period, but will remain a concern subsequently.

- c) In case of total redemption of an Investor, the Manager and/or the Fund shall, at their own cost and expense, yield up and deliver to the Investor or to such other person nominated by the Investor for that purpose, all information, documentation, materials and all other property whatsoever belonging to the Investor (including, without limitation, all Confidential Information of the Investor).
- d) Notwithstanding the provisions of c) above, the Fund shall retain Confidential Information which it is bound by law or regulation to preserve or which it may reasonably require to keep for archival purposes, for the period as outlined in Paragraph a). The provisions of this Prospectus regarding to Confidentiality shall continue to apply until such time as any information is kept by the Manager or the Fund.
- e) The Manager and/or the Fund as applicable shall, upon request by the Investor, provide them with the confidential information kept on them in a format which shall be useable by the Investor. The Investor shall have the right to request all relevant information regarding the nature of the information taken, as well as all details of its storage, use and processing, including but not limited to whether such information is to be shared with third parties as per paragraph b), and for what purpose.
- f) Pursuant to Paragraph e), the Investor shall have the right to request the correction and/or deletion of personal data, or to raise objections regarding its use. In the case of a request for correction or deletion, the Manager and/or the Fund shall comply without undue delay, subject to the confidential information not being necessary to the carrying out of its duties.
- g) Pursuant to and in addition to the rights enumerated in the previous paragraphs of this section, the Investor shall, during the Subscription process and subsequently upon

At the date hereof, the authorised share capital of the Company is ten billion € (10.bn €) shares with no nominal value assigned to them. The share capital of the Company will be equal to the value for the time being of the issued share capital of the Company.

As at the date of this Prospectus 100 fully paid up Class 'A' Subscriber Shares in the Company have been issued, at a price (subscription value) of EUR1.00 per share. The Subscriber Shareholders are:

- FCS Group Ltd.; and
- Daniel Alonso-Pulpon Nuñez

The actual value of the paid up share capital of any Fund shall at all times be equal to the Net Asset Value of such Fund as determined in accordance with this Prospectus and the Articles.

The Directors will exercise all the powers of the Company to allot or issue Shares in the Company (excluding Subscriber Shares). The maximum number of Shares which may be allotted or issued by the Company may not exceed the number of ten billion (10,000,000) authorised shares (inclusive of the number of any Shares in the Company already issued at the relevant time). However, any Shares which have been repurchased shall be deemed never to have been issued for the purpose of calculating the maximum number of Shares which may be issued. Any such Shares which have been repurchased by the Company will be cancelled as provided in the Articles. The Directors have delegated to the Administrator the duties of processing applications for subscription to, and of allotting or issuing, new Shares in the Funds, as well as the duties of processing applications for redemptions or the registration of transfers, transmissions causa mortis and pledges of and other transactions in, Shares in the Funds and co-ordinating payments in respect of such issues and redemptions, subject to the parameters set by the Company governing the role of the Administrator in relation to such tasks. Unless otherwise stated in the Supplement for the Fund, there is no limit on the number of Shares which the Directors may issue in any Fund, subject to the total limit of ten billion (10,000,000) authorised shares referred to above, which shall apply on an aggregate basis for all shares (including the Subscriber Shares and all Shares in all Funds) which may be issued by the Company at any one time.

The Base Currency of any Fund will be the base currency of any Class of Shares constituting that Fund. In the case of a Fund comprising two or more Classes of Shares, such Classes may be denominated in different currencies and the other Classes may accordingly be denominated in a currency different to the Base Currency of such Fund. The Company will maintain proper accounting records of the assets and liabilities of each Fund in the Base Currency of such Fund. The conversion from the base currency of any Class of Shares (or from the Base Currency of any Fund) into the base currency of the Company (where applicable) shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The right of holders of any Shares to participate in the assets of the Company is limited to the assets (if any) of the Fund relating to such Shares. If the realised net assets of any Fund are insufficient to pay any amounts due on the relevant Shares in full in accordance with the Supplement and the Articles, the relevant Shareholders will have no further right of payment in respect of such Shares or any claim against any other Fund or any other assets of the Company. Each Shareholder's right to any return of capital or income on the Shares is subject to this Prospectus, the relevant Supplement and the Articles generally.

Unless and to the extent otherwise stated as aforesaid, Investor Shares in any Fund participate equally in the profits and distributions (including distributions upon liquidation) of the relevant Fund and they rank 'pari passu' and enjoy equal rights accordingly and do not carry any preferential or pre-emptive rights, whether on new issue and allotment by the Company or on a transfer by the holder/s thereof; provided that in the case of a Fund comprising two or more classes of Investor Shares, the Directors may assign to them different rights, entitlements and restrictions in respect of profits and distributions (including upon liquidation) of the Fund and otherwise as provided in the Articles of Association, the Prospectus and the relevant terms of issue, in which case such classes shall rank between them in proportion to their respective entitlements. The Company and its delegates shall not be responsible for any loss or delay in transmission. Bank or other charges and expenses in connection with the transfer of funds will be at the charge of the Shareholder, and the Company or its delegates on its behalf shall be entitled to give clear instructions to this effect ('all charges for recipient') to the bank or financial institution wiring or transferring the funds, and in any case the Company or its delegates on its behalf will be entitled to deduct or recover all such transfer charges and expenses otherwise incurred by it from the monies due.

Register and Registration of Shares

A Register of Shares will be kept on behalf of the Company by the Administrator at the registered office of the Administrator and/or at any other place as may be determined by the Company and specified in the Articles. In such Register will be entered the names and addresses of the Shareholders and particulars of the Shares held by them respectively, as well as pledges of any Shares recognised by the Company (subject to the relevant provisions of this Prospectus and the Articles), and such other particulars as may be required by the Articles or by law. A copy of the Register will at all reasonable times during business hours, upon notice of at least two (2) Banking Days, be open to inspection of the Shareholders without charge. The Register may be kept on magnetic tape or in electronic form or in accordance with some other appropriate mechanical or electronic system or on some other medium, provided that legible evidence can be produced therefrom to satisfy the requirements of applicable law and of the Articles.

Any change to the personal details of any person entered in the Register must be notified to the Company or the Administrator immediately in writing. The Company and the Administrator reserves the right to request indemnity or verification before accepting such notification.

The Company may close the Register (and the register of debentures, if any), for any time or times not exceeding, in total, thirty (30) days in each calendar year.

Shares, and the transfer, transmission or pledge thereof, must be registered as provided in this Prospectus under the part "Share Dealings".

A person in whose name a Share will be registered as owner shall (to the fullest extent permitted by law) be treated at all times and for all purposes as the absolute owner of such Share regardless of any notice of ownership or trust. Accordingly, the Company will recognise an absolute right of title to Shares in the registered holder thereof and will not be bound by or recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any Shares or any other right in respect of any Shares, except only as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the Articles or as may be required by law. Nothing in the foregoing will be construed as prohibiting the Company from registering, recognising and/or acknowledging a transfer, assignment, transmission or pledge on any of its Shares in accordance and subject to the provisions hereof and of the Articles.

Shares held jointly

In the case of Shares in respect of which an Application Form or Transfer Registration Form is made jointly by several persons (including husband and wife), the joint applicants may nominate one of their number as their representative and his/her/its name will be entered first in the Register with such designation. Failing such nomination, the joint applicant whose name will be inserted first in the field giving details of the applicant/s on the Application Form or the Transfer Registration Form, will be entered first in the Register. Such joint Shareholder first named in the Register will for all intents and purposes be deemed to be and be treated as the single registered holder of the Shares so held (except for such purposes as may be mentioned in the Articles and in this Prospectus). Accordingly, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Company (acting through the relevant Administrator as appropriate) will not be bound to issue more than one written confirmation of ownership or contract note or registration advice for such Shares and the delivery thereof and of any notices whatsoever to the joint Shareholder first named on the Register will be deemed sufficient delivery to all, and the payment of dividends, repurchase or liquidation monies or other amounts due by the Company / any Fund in respect of such Shares to such first named joint Shareholder will be deemed sufficient payment to all and will accordingly be a good discharge to the Company / the relevant Fund.
